This year's 47th issue of Shueisha's Weekly Young Jump magazine is revealing on Thursday that Sankaku Head's Himouto! Umaruchan manga will end in three more chapters, in the magazine's 50th issue. The issue also asks fans to wait for a follow-up report in the 50th issue.

Sankaku Head launched the manga in Weekly Young Jump in 2013 (after running an earlier two-chapter Himoto! Umaru-chan! version in Miracle Jump in 2012). Shueisha published the manga's 11th compiled volume (pictured at right) on September 19. The manga had 3 million copies in print as of September.
