In regards to the current Spotify Upgrade Issues: Explanation (Click to View)

(Oct 28, 2017 01:09 PM)chetos22 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) is it true that you can only add a Spotify account to a family plan twice only?

Yes, and Thank you for bringing this to the table.

I along with other sellers am able to upgrade only twice on the same account - with that being said.

All my current customers with my 12 month warranty, I will be willing to create a new account (personalized if requested) and transfer 100% of your Playlists, songs, stations, artists, albums, and even podcasts & videos for free until your warranty ends.

(Please understand, with this in mind I will be backed up a lot. It will take time, but it will be done depending on amount of Music/Podcasts/Videos are followed.)

Now, new customers; you will have 12 months of warranty just like my current customers but, I will not create the accounts for you - I'll gladly upgrade them for you for free while on warranty.

I understand how many may feel currently, I'm sorry for this inconvenience.

Got a premium Spotify account from Bussy. I reached out to him over Skype and completed the transaction. Very responsive seller and willing to answer questions. The transaction was smooth. I was able to login instantly and confirm that the account was active. I would definitely recommend Bussy if you want premium Spotify accounts.

I do accept PP ? Yes I have cracked ones, but I also do Upgrades on personal accounts.

I made this thread design a little bit ago, looking back at it now it shouldn't void the warranty - thank you for bringing this to my attention. I will update soon, for the time remaining I'll have to stay with my T.O.S for now. (Sadly I can't prove who changed the password ;)) But I need to stay with what my T.O.S says.

If you click my thread design you will be redirected to my Selly.gg Page. ?
