Thread: Auto buyers? PS4

Its nice to be nice - October 20, 2017, 12:24 pm

Just read briefly about a programme or service that auto buys and sells for more to increase coins drastically without doing anything. Just wondering if anyone knows anything about them. Are they easy to get hold of/pay for for usage.

Just interested if anyone knows anything I'd love to know.

Thanks

I've heard people use <http://futmillionaire.com/> i havent used it myself so i dont really know

Back in 2015 i had a autobuyer for FIFA 16, you needed a good player list to make larger profit

pasatitch - October 26, 2017, 1:43 pm

Interested in that thread. I've always been scared to have my account locked for it.

libgabry - October 27, 2017, 1:27 am you will spend more time trying to get a good list of player than actually playing, you also have a huge chance of getting your account banned.

For a 'Hack Forum' you guys commenting on here are a bunch of pussies. Where are your cahones lads ?! Autobuyers work, and they work WELL, especially if you know the market.

MadeWithMoney - November 5, 2017, 3:30 am

I commented "futbotmanager" and most people replied saying its fake bla bla, I don't even think they know what an autobuyer is lol

anyways heres my team made off futbotmanager

I've used autobuyers in the past it just depends where you purchase one from tbh.

If you use a shady site then yeah your probably going to be scammed or loose your FUT.

Personally, i've used fut millionaire a few times and always been fine.

Hey, i used to to a lot of trading on fifa, i had 2 ways of getting some coins (besides playing lol), I had an autoclicker that i set up (really easy) and i also had another autobuyer that was created in some other forum that i cant recall. they were pretty weak by themselves but when combined, i could get up to 50-80k a day (with a really good list of players)

libgabry - February 3, 2018, 12:25 pm

Whatever accounts you use in the autobuyer will be locked within a few days.

As developer of autobuyer FUTMaker, I declare that this is not true. We have more than 500 customers and in FIFA 18 there were only 2 cases of webapp market block. And all of them because of incorrect input of captcha.

Futmate has a great autobuyer/bidder, also with a great forum. Can easily make 100k+ with one account on autopilot once you learn how to use it.

I used one a few years ago once, it was horrible and wasted my money.
