Thread: BE AWARE SCAMMED \$500 BY Manboy Mafia UID=3499072 \(PROFESSIONAL MASTER CON ARTIST\)

SIM-217648 - October 20, 2017, 1:56 pm

I give this guy a rating for the scam from 1-10 i give 100
Lets get straight to the point !

I got his first two ebooks from him, the $35 package, (package one) and the $50 package (package 2). Well i got both of the methods from him, and i started generating some views (but no actual buyers) however, i was amazed that i got some views (even though i followed my own methods and combined it was very easy to get views.

His so called package "$500 (package 3) who will make you K's a month, is a very well organized scam. Believe me. He wont show you anything on the $500 package, the $500 package is the same package as $35 and $50.

So when i bought from him the package he said he will mentor 24/7 He also will add in a group skype of professional mentors where there are people like him who making like 10 K a month. (long story short) i was added to the group, and inside of the group. they were simple innocent people like me who only purchased the $500 package, and didnt knew a shit about the actual method. There were people who starting from 0 (and they were no actual mentors) who will guide you etc. However this was a very organized scam because i made different questions in the group to see if they were actual experts , and the reply i got from them (Bruh im only a guy like you who joined the group) so they didnt knew shit. They weren't mentors they were guys who joined to learn things, so what MANNBOY MAFIA thought about this, a group when who purchased $500, can help each other with different questions (with zero experience before)

I mean like wtf, we didnt purchased the $500 package to get help from begginers, i mean no offence but we purchased the $500 package to get help from manboy mafia and his so called "professional mentors" however there we no actual mentors in the group. only bunch of guys who purchased and thinking some one of the group is expert, however, after desperate attempt, they were actually helping each other. i mean a begginer was helping a begginer, and the first day i joined the group the one so called "professional con artist" send us a skype voice into the group" hey guys i will be very busy today have lots of work to do, i will be replying to limited questions. i was like wtf.
when i purchase $500 package i require you to be with me 24/7 just like you state on your thread.

so i didnt write anymore in the group i chatted with manboy mafia and he gave me some "TIPS" when the actual tips i knew about them because of the previous ebooks i got from him, and the good part is when i noticed something about the $500 package that ringed a bell for me that this so called the $500 package is a fucking bullshit.

please see the spoiler

Spoiler (Click to View)

Notice how he says "loading my comp to send you the ebook (after i purchased the $500 package) and i tell him hey i already got version 1 and 2.

oh yeah he says.
sorry i deal with 80 people like a day.

so in this text he committed that he was going to send me one of the "version1 and 2" which i already got them. so there was no actual method 3.

and he said sorry, so he actually was going to send me the previous ebooks i got from him

yes he was going to send me one of the version 1 which costs $35 or the version 2 which costs $50. which i actually paid $500 for the version 3.

as i repeat again. there was no actual version 3.

the version 3, includes version 2 WHAT HE TOLD ME. ?

So i was like ok, lets see what hes got so he started sending me voice messages "teaching me" (repeating the same thing which was included on version 2"

So once again he was telling things from the $50 EBOOK, for a $500 package i purchased. His so called tips and tricks were actually a bullshit. And people are falling for it. ?

In the second spoiler is a a very good fuckin example the people who bought the method are desperate and there is bunch of begginers in the group who trying hard to help each other. SO NO ACTUAL PROFESSIONAL MENTORS LIKE HE SAID.

Look the people calling out for manboy mafia where he's not there and the second chat is "hopefully the money invested will be worth dude" because members are slowly realizing that his so called famous group is a actual shit. ?

Spoiler (Click to View)

So as you can see people need assistance and the so called "professional" is not there helping them, actually messages like this are a ton trust me. after reading the comments in the group it started me giving a feeling that this was not the right place to be, as i wasnt getting much of help. manboy mafia was busy all day and not replying to our questions. So our hours and minutes seconds were running out, as we were in for the package for a month membership. so he was slowly gaining time and not helping much of members, so after a few skype chats, the manboy mafia send us a skype voice with this method guys you can earn like $1,000 a month.

when i heard that i was like wtf dude you promised for earnings like $5k + (minimum) and seeing the screenshots he provided he was saying how to gain $10k a month $18 k a month (1.73k a week.)

and after we purchased this he told us we can make $1,000 if we work very hard and stay at least 16 hours a day with our phone. i was like wtf , i can make that much more with my own methods.

so i asked for refund.

here are the screenshots.

<https://imgur.com/a/PHP9x>

So as you can see he was not offering a refund at all, even though i was in time to get out from his evil SCAMMER ARTIST METHOD.

Also as you can see i did not wanted to have full refund but i was being nice on him and giving only $100 and only getting $400 back.

In the thread he made against me he wrote that i was asking for $400 btc, (in matter of fact you can check the screenshots (btc was not even mentioned there) so i say there, hey dude where is btc you dumbass ?

He also kicked me from the group only by asking for a refund, instead of dealing this matter like professional and giving other options, he choosed me to kick me out, because i broke the rules) which the rules are not mentioned in any single place (asking for a refund) so as you can see his $500 package his actually his $50 package he just throws very little details how to make the snapchat earnings.

members were actually typing that they were working like 2 weeks and still no results $0 earnings, and their package of 30 day membership was running out. ? i was like wtf, and i started laughing for real. i thought to my self damnnnn this guy is so smart, an perfect example of an PROFESSIONAL CON ARTIST. ???

However he kicked my out of the group, just by asking for a refund? ?

However for security reasons and not to ruin all his life and package off $500 , i will not reveal all the messages in the group bcs you will be amazed how he shares his so called "tricks and tips" which all of them are omegle,chatroulette,pornhub and different snap/kik sites.

To those of you who dont know i used version1 and version2 for almost 2 weeks. And "mentor" of manboy mafia confirmed into this thread that version 3 was version2 and version 2 was version 1
So basically i purchased a package for $500. Whi was being sold for $50

SIM-217648 - October 20, 2017, 1:57 pm

Please be aware of this guy, if anyone wants actual proof of the messages etc, they can teamviewer me, while i still have the old skype messages on the group. i will let anyone who wants with teamviewer, so before you buy please read this thread twice. he only helps gaining views, but no actual buyers !!!!

and his so called "SHOIFY SCREENSHOTS/VIDS" were screenshots from his Friend who runs a headphone shopify page and he got the screenshot and the video from him , so please think twice before you enter via teamviewer into his computer, because yes the earnings are real, but they are not comming from his method. they are comming from another method, from his friends method which he gave login details to the manboy mafia, so to gain more trust and people to get the $500 package, dont you see how amazing this was? the earnings that he posts are actually real. but not comming from his snapchat method. they are comming from an headphones page which he told me. which has nothing to do with snapchat ????????

So once again, this is a very very very very well organized scam to go into the market and scam 10's or even 100's of people who buying the method..

once again he only shares how to gain views but no real buying.

so when you go to him and say hey i didnt got anyone to buy today he will tell something like because you didnt do my method right.

look at yourself you get like 2-3k snaps per pic and still not getting buyers.

because he runs a very saturated method, and he fucking insists to everbody his earnings are REAL FROM HIS SNAPCHAT METHOD.

So once again please please please, dont bother even entering via teamviewer, the earnings are real. but not comming from his so called method "snapchat god" so he tricked alot of people including me.

i know that he has alot of buddies that will come here and throw different accusations against me, or even say bullshit things just to make his service more legit. ?

And once again for the last time, his earnings from the shopify he posts are REAL 100 % REAL . but not comming from his method he sells here on hackforums. "how he generated 18 k in 30 days and yada yada."

I will end this right here.

LONG STORY SHORT,

He is a professional con artist and his scamming a very huge community here into a very professional way. Into a professional way that you will realize it after your memberships ends and you actually made no fucking moneys off this.

That's why he does a 30 day membership.

End off this. thank you for everyone who read this, including the professional con artist. ?

IM WILLING TO POST MORE IMAGES AND MORE PROOFS ABOUT HIS SCAM, BUT I REALLY DONT HAVE TIME TO DEDICATE ALL THE PROOFS TO HIS BULLSHIT.

I just want everybody to know be aware !!!!!

HE IS A PROFESSIONAL CON ARTIST HE WAS SO FUCKING GOOD AT THE SCAM AND PEOPLE ARE SO STUPID FOR BELIEVING INTO THIS

Ok so:

A friend owns a shopify store selling headphones and gives manboy mafia login details to fake the earnings.

This explains his skype profile picture being a skull with headphones - and his snapchat being " im headphone hero "

Guys remember..

If you made 12k a week,
would you give out your method for 500$?

No.

Then why do you think that others would do it?

This is a very well ORGANIZED SCAM.

No... he created various threads, claiming he made 4.5k in one week, 12k in one month, and 18k in a month.

And he's selling "guide to snapchat success" for 35$, and mentorship at 500$ if i made 4.5k a week then why the hell would i give away my method for 35$??

Why would I tell somebody how to make 4.5k a week for 35$, if i earn 642$ a day.

I would be better off not telling anyone, and keep the secret to myself.

If you made 12k in one month, would you sell your method for 35$? Or 500$?

I made 3.5k this month and I would never tell anybody my method, not even sell it. I keep it to myself, like everybody that finds a way to earn money would. If someone makes 4.5k a week, 35$ is NOTHING to him.

If someone makes 50$ a week, then 35$ will mean a lot to him.

did you read the part where he states that he asked a friend to get his shopify login details to fake his earnings?

Why would he need to show earnings of other people if he makes 4.5k a week?

TwisteD - October 20, 2017, 2:38 pm

Well, if its a scam then hes not a good scammer because a few people have already made their money back. Ill also post an honest review in a week or two as I just started yesterday. And yes I'm working with him but in no way will my review or posts about this method be biased.

SIM-217648 - October 20, 2017, 2:38 pm

Copywriter - October 20, 2017, 2:48 pm

I've been seeing some sketchy ass reviews on the thing, they were too positive.

Peter - October 20, 2017, 3:04 pm

OP is an absolute retard.

I am and one of Manboy's original mentorees (I think the second or third one). So, I will make that clear from the out set.

Firstly, the method works - I can guarantee it works. I'm not saying this because I like manboy, but I've watched others make their money back in a couple of days and are now profiting and others who are already making a shit ton of profit.

The method isn't a get rich quick scheme - it takes hours and hours of your time (which I don't have - so I've been doing it slower than most) but when I did sell for one day, I made $120 USD - and that was even selling at a half ass rate.

As for OP, he's taken everything out of context. Those messages saying where is manboy, is he sleeping is me - I can prove it if need be. I wasn't saying it because I needed Manboy's help - I know what I'm doing it. We jus have an on going thing where we call each other lil bitches and joke around. We actually get along pretty well, like manboy does with other guys in the chat. So, that part is irrelevant.

As for the methods themselves, if OP wasn't such a retard, he would release that there is only one method, there is only one ebook (with a possible slight variation with additional methods in the second one - I'm not sure as I haven't got it). But, the founding method on how to do this method is the same. Package one is the basic outline of the method - it has limited support from what I understand. It also has basic spreading methods which are the most effective methods.

Package 2 is much the same as package one, but I understand comes with support. It may contain additional spreading methods (keep in mind, method one has 2 spreading methods whilst there are upwards of 8-10 in total).

Package 3 is much the same as package 2, except you get access to all the spreading methods, manboy shows you step by step on how to get to A-Z, of course you're expected to ask questions and manboy will answer them ASAP. The third package is literally a teacher-student concept - manboy guarantees success here as he is essentially holding your hand.

OP doesn't get this, he thinks that each package is the same. Wrong.

As for the whole he will be holding your hand 24/7 - if manboy told you that, then sorry that you're a retard for believing that anyone will be holding your hand 24/7 - yes maybe he shouldn't have said that if he did, but does your teachers hold your hand at school 24/7? Don't you think people actually have lives? How is he expected to do the method himself?

The proof of earnings is real - OP's claim regarding shopify is just baseless assumption. Manboy offers show any interested buyers by teamview that the earnings are legit - I'm sure manboy will prove this time and time again.

As for OP, you are a retard. You simply requested a refund (despite manboy telling you no refunds) because you didn't have time to do this. You blamed him for not telling you that this will consume your day. This is the part where you are in the wrong. You don't go buy your favourite gaming console, go home just to find it's not compatible with your tv and go back to the store and ask for a refund because you were too incompetent to do your own research and ask the required questions. If you asked him the most basic question "how many hours do I need to do this for" I can guarantee you manboy would recommend at the minimum 4 hours roughly everyday for success over time and if you want immediate success, you will be spending all day. Some members spent their whole day spreading to get to 10k viewers and made $300 in the same day. You're the retard for not asking questions and now upset be used you didn't get your own way.

For anyone who wants to ask me about how I'm going with the method, as I stated earlier, I'm going at a slower rate than others as I only have at most 2nhours everyday to do this, yet, even with that I am still at a level where I could start earning a shit ton - I have just chosen to grow to 10k before doing so.

This whole argument came over because OP doesn't have the time for the method, not be used manboy doesn't provide the required support or mentoring. Manboy will without fail, answer everyones questions and look ways to improve the results (which he shares with his mentorees). There's a spreading method where Manboy was about to pay 1k to a coder to automate the process and give that same program to all his mentorees. Instead, he found a free program that does the same thing and provided that to all of us.

Anyone that wants to ask questions about this, feel free to pm me. But I can guarantee is works - your results simply vary from how much time you spend on this, like anything else you do in life.

I already did my part. I opened a new thread telling everybody how he scammed me.i dont have time to argue with all of his friends who come here and tell me what ti do. I also dont have time to explain the same thing to eveybody he is a scammer. If you dont believe my report than please go away . You are not welcomed here. After all, you came to me. I didnt came to you. If u still dont believe me and go ahead and purchase his package, than its fine man. Everybody got to choose in life. Im not telling you to deal or not to deal with bitchboy mafia. Im just telling just be aware of what he is doing. If u still wanna deal thats fine. I totally understand you.

I bought the version 1 and 2 and tried the method for almost 2 weeks. Yes 2 fucking weeks.

You clearly just addmited

Version 3 is version2 and version 2 is version 1

So in own words .

"It was at this momment, he knew.

He fucked up"

Either you're saying you got scammed, in which case you need to prove you got acammed or if you're saying simply deal with caution, then it should be a community alert which you're saying this was your experience which you're entitled to do so.

What you're doing is accusing him of scamming you, when you were in the mentorship for not even 1 day before realising you don't have time for it and wanted a refund.

I'm entitled to post here because as much as manboy can defend himself, it's his word against yours. However, I was never known to manboy prior to me buying his mentorship, you can see my entire post history and rep history - I was never "his friend". I then purchased his mentorship and because it worked for me, I will post here to tell the other side of the story since your story is not factually correct.

I mean, I have no benefit out of posting here - so why would I lie? If I bought it and the method didn't work - wouldn't I post a scan report? Wouldn't the other 13 members post a scam report? Obviously something is wrong here and it's you. I mean, we aren't talking about $10 - we are taking about $500 usd. That's a whole week's wage for some people.

If you can't prove your accusations, then this report is invalid and should be deleted. If you want to complain about his mentoring, that should be in a form of a reply to his sales thread or a community alert at the very worst.

Also I clearly state the ebook is revamped. My free ebook that you are calling version one was half ass explained and was like 2 paragraphs long with some pictures . I never once told anyone they weren't the same method.

The only reason it was free was to get some people on my method before I started selling it. I gave it to about 20 people.

I already stated this in one of my previous threads so that's not any news.

There is no proof of it that's why. I offer to show proof of my earnings to any serious buyer or any questioning hq ub3r and I show how it links to my method I just don't show the earnings I show in detail how it links .

It was free for less then a week it was just for upgraded users to see it before I went to sell it

That's how he marketed his threads and got lots of attention.

I'd love proof of this lmfaooo I'll show my btc wallet . I only send payments to my bank account and it shows

Why? He paid for it and should have known what was required to succeed. So why should he get his money back?

Autophobia - October 20, 2017, 4:00 pm

I also just saw you said I claim there's a different ebook and that's what you meant by versions . In my thread I clearly say you get a copy of the revamped ebook on all 3 packages . I don't say they are 3 different ones. The difference between packages are no help some help full mentorship

Yeah man i fixed this with amazon ?

He surely wasnt getting away with my $500.
I got the moneys refunded already.

I even offered him to refund me a partial amount.

Dumb off me still being nice to him. After what he did.

It's not for the parties involved I'm sure it prolly is for anyone just trying to checkup they said I can't get my money back until he clears his account first due to the fraud accusation . After that I can go after him once the account is unlocked to get the funds back

I don't care lol.

As I understand it, manboy made back 6x the amount he lost to you in the 12 hour time frame.

But as it stands, you got your money back (apparently), because you charged back on the payment after the method was given to you, so now the only thing that remains an issue is manboy's open scam report on you.

I read the thread like a bedtime story. So long tho. Sorry for the loss mate. Hope it gets resolved :)

Autophobia - October 20, 2017, 4:13 pm

I'm done replying to this though I have a separate report made on you yesterday with all the proof anyone can need . Anything you accused me of I offered to show anyone proof you're wrong / lying . All you did was pay and mooch all the info you could in one day and when you got all you could in a 24 hour period you wanted a refund . When I said I don't offer refund especially when I already shared a lot of info and that he contacted and got help by my mentorees while I was sleeping you got mad trying to make a deal with me trying to me to send you btc (not even your method of payment) more than likely to double scam

Me seeing you probably would still get the card taken back .

Your report is invalid , you have no proof you have wild accusations that I'm paying people large sums of money etc etc you didn't even try the mentorship at all you got info and left you can't say a single word about my mentorship.

You claim my earnings are fake I always offer to show them I even say it on the thread

You say I said my ebook for mentorship was different I've said many times it's not Everything you've said doesn't make sense and doesn't add up and doesn't have any proof to back it up. You're just butt hurt man.

In that case, there's really no need for this thread.
