During the Fantasia Bunko Festival 2017 event on Saturday it was revealed that the previously revealed fourth season of the Highschool DxD anime series will be titled Highschool DxD Hero and is slated to premiere in 2018. The first promotional video was also previewed during the event.

What better news can we get?

Season 4 of our favorite school life oppai action anime is back. At this rate, we're in for some very epic fights if they follow the light novel faithfully. ?

All these nice grills wasted in a terrible show
They'd be better off in a hentai OVA instead :(

The show itself is actually so bad because the MC is so cringe but it's "enjoyable" to say that least haha. Excited for the new season
