Thread: [\[CHALLENGE\] shell uploading \[#1\] \[/SERIES\]](#)

WPA2 - October 24, 2017, 3:03 am

Hey you guys I want to challenge some of you who want to test their skills. All it takes is burp suit and your brain. You can use of course any tools.

I was looking at this section or the request section and all I see is noobs asking how did you do this how did you do that? so what about I will post a challenge and you guys try it. At the end I will explain how I or anyone who get it from the followers posts.

Target:

upload your shell here when your done with your nickname if you want.

rules: no defacing the website

when uploading your shell as php with your nickname as .txt

by the way you can setup password for your phpshell on the following challenge series.
