SQL God - May 23, 2019, 1:35 am

I cannot PM quite yet but I made an introduction thread and someone told me to come over to this section and take a look at the posts here regarding SQLi. This was the first post I saw. Just out of curiosity, do you mind if I take a look at the guide? Not trying to sound cocky but I have worked with search query language for going on 10 years since I was like 11 and have extracted information you probably would never believe possible and/or call me a liar.

Nonetheless, I do want to see and I will promptly provide my feedback. Also, thank you for your contribution to the forums.
