This is a totally different service. I believe my success rate is much higher.

He's doing his for 1.5k for inactive users. I don't care if they're inactive or active.

Hahahaha in order to panel they need to be inactive, banned or deactivated. I'm talking about any username. Get your facts right.

Glubz got me an active username thanks! This is so much. Erred then panel because he can get pretty much any name!

?uncho - October 26, 2017, 7:20 am

If you're able to pull me the username which is the same as my HF name, I'll pay more than what you're asking for even if it isn't worth it. PM me.

They've got an employee too. Read what I said. Don't need to be inactive. Get your facts right.

GLWS

I HIGHLY doubt an IG employee would openly give out active usernames. I think someone is talking out of their ass. Unless you show me proof, you need to get your facts right.

I'd be willing to half refund at least as it takes time and effort.

This isn't paneling.

Hey man, don't have that kind of money to spend right now but any chance you need any design / front-end work done in exchange? If not, no worries at all.
