Thread: Did everyone hit their goals?

Cute - October 26, 2017, 11:38 am

Hello all, Just posting this to see if everyone had got their ranks they wanted this season?

I finally hit plat so I'm pretty happy, curious to see about everyone else tho.

Xepher The Cat - October 26, 2017, 11:46 am

I didn't get masters tier like I was hoping to.

laxor2307 - October 26, 2017, 3:35 pm

Last season I got to D2 in 120 games, was aiming for Masters this season but since I was really busy with college was only able to play once in a while so settled in D3 FeelsBad...

test - October 26, 2017, 3:37 pm

I did okay considering how much I played. Only really started trying these past two weeks and got close to Diamond. I plan on try-harding to high Diamond next season.

?uncho - October 26, 2017, 3:37 pm

I started this game yesterday and have been getting ass raped for the past 24 hours.

Lion - October 26, 2017, 4:22 pm

Yeah actually. It's not that amazing, but it's always been one of my milestones in League ?

I got to gold, which is what I wanted. Then I stopped, didn't even contemplate trying for anything higher. Too frustrating just to get where I wanted to.

If anyone here isn't too busy and would like to help me out, I'm at Silver 1 just trying to get Gold 5 before season ends! :D

my name is liam - October 28, 2017, 4:46 am finally got diamond after 3 years, was hard but was good aiming for masters or high diamond next season

/wrists - October 28, 2017, 11:03 am

Diamond is hard because plat is a cesspool or braindead maggots lol

Almost impossible to carry

?LEEP - October 28, 2017, 2:19 pm

Yo I bought a new account? What could you get me in placements?

Hoped to hit Platinum but doesn't look like it's happening.

DontQQSoMuch - October 29, 2017, 4:26 am

Didn't get masters, FeelsBadMan. Guess my stubbornness to play tanks held me back quite a bit, also the toxicity is another problem XD

I want to start a club on League, were we all are "Professionally Toxic". See what we can push to say and flame with and find where the barrier lies.

"Well we can't call him a faggot, maybe we can call him a pole rider."

Temp - October 29, 2017, 3:48 pm

Didn't play league until last month. Was really hard for me to adjust to the new changes even though I was high diamond last season. Thought I could reach diamond after 20-30 games but took three times that. Meta is different, ADC is barely viable anymore unless you play meta champs like kog or trist. Took me a while to get used to all the reworks like Warwick and such. Got to diamond in a little less than a month and won't bother climbing any further. Played my 10 games flex on 5v5 and placed gold, mainly for the rewards. Same applies for 3v3, although I am actively trying to reach plat, currently sitting at gold 1. Shouldn't take that long. Maybe a day. All in all I'm ok with my current ranks

I've never queued flex. What's it like?

Easier than Solo Queue?

I use flex to practice, a more serious version of norms I would say.

Frankey - October 31, 2017, 11:01 am

I think I could've got to my goal pretty easy which was getting Master this season on my main. I just did not have enough time, so ended up in D1. Maybe I'll try it in the last few days of this season but idk

HDNYKO - October 31, 2017, 4:02 pm

I've been bronze for like 4 seasons straight, and now im almost Gold 5. My main goal tho is challenger tbh

That's alright! take your time and practice throughout the pre-season.

I hit my goals this season and ended at Plat 5, not the best rank but not bad either anyone else hit their goals?

Ultimate Top - November 29, 2018, 12:49 pm

I hit Diamond 3 60 LP from Diamond 5 0 LP. I was Diamond 2 100 LP earlier in the season but I tilted lost a lot and never really came back the same. Looking to hit D1 next season.
