SlowMehMo - October 28, 2017, 2:03 am

Hello, i got a bit discouraged practicing C++, ? so i went back to C# for a bit and made something i really wanted, there isn't alot of decent chat spammers, most of them go char by char, so i use the clipboard instead.
The windows is undraggable by the way i just preferred it.

If you have a idea for something simple i can practice on please comment, i like looking for projects, but im still learning so simple is better.
I hope you find this as useful as i do, everyone needs a spammer and most of them are a bit slower than we'd like.

If anyone can explain why i get false-flagged here please comment.

You didnt follow instructions, please give me you key from the DDAT key tool.

I have to authorize you first. It's ok bud, but please post this in the sales thread. Link is in my signature. ?

Sorry for the inconvenience, but in the future please the instructions first. ?

Also i will be making a much better version of this soon, just for funzies

Cool program, simple and works great.

SlowMehMo - May 2, 2018, 5:25 pm

I might update this, i made it hastily in a few minutes and its very simple, just an hour and i can have this working much much better.

Thinking i can add a delay so you can get around discord anti-spam and make the spam button user selected etc

Even an option to spam multiple different messages.

Well if you do decide to update it, i'll be sure to give it a download.

Thanks for the +rep as well. ?

You seems cool, be careful there are alot of random sharks around here, someone just -3 me just now for no reason.

they think it makes them look powerful, yet they come to you for coding advice because they dont have the brain or attention spain to read some MSDN articles.

Its all good tho, if they spent 30 bucks just to -3 me then i won lol

You're flagged for that one .dll because it's a false flag from some noname AV.

Oooohhh, yeah those dlls are used alot, since then i have learned to make my own controls, but im not very good at it, ill be working on rebuilding this today, this was just to annoy my friends but i should flesh it out, so i might have a update for this today or tomorrow.
