Thread: Netflix price rising?

Musta Barbaari - November 1, 2017, 11:48 am

Anyone else got the message? It was 9.99€ earlier and today when I opened Netflix it said "Thank you for being a loyal member. Netflix price will be rising to 10.22€ starting on 22nd November."

Yea thanks a lot for being a loyal member and paying us for like the last five years or so. Let us just slap you in the face, as a thank you ofcourse, with this higher fee.

lwristis - November 1, 2017, 11:49 am

I remember when it was $5.

ZurgTage - November 1, 2017, 11:51 am

Yep. Worth it for all the original content they are putting out!

Musta Barbaari - November 1, 2017, 11:53 am

Oh and I even got the price wrong, its going to be 10.99€ now... Yea the series they put out are really great but still come on :D Don't raise the price for old customers!

Younis Khan - November 1, 2017, 12:22 pm

jajajajajaja hit up courage and get those netflix accounts boi why would u pay that shit

$11 a month is enough to get enough cracked netflix to last u a while

Tyler? - November 1, 2017, 12:22 pm

Yeah it kinda annoys me the prices are going up.

I already pay $13 a month. Like god damn. I see why people just buy cracked accounts..

luke - November 1, 2017, 12:24 pm

I use cracked accounts, but I'd pay the extra because of the original content they're making.

I guess it's kinda worth it.

Gustav. - November 1, 2017, 12:58 pm

Just buy cracked accounts

Parks - November 1, 2017, 1:00 pm

I don't pay for netflix or watch much of it now a days but gotta give em props for charging so much lmao

Cagey - November 1, 2017, 1:40 pm

I pay like 12 because everyone on it

Musta Barbaari - November 1, 2017, 10:30 pm

I'm not about that criminal life. Jokes, maybe I should start using cracked accounts to save a few bucks

Vigor - November 1, 2017, 10:31 pm

Damn I could really use a cracked account right about now

Generating - November 4, 2017, 10:53 pm

I legit have Netflix accounts from old rats from like a year ago so this will never really be an issue for me lol. It's not even really an issue for anyone that pays for it either, it's literally like $1 more. Who cares :p

Yes it's only 1$ more, that's not much you are right. But the weird thing for me was that they were thanking me for being a loyal customer and as a thank you they raised the price.

SIM-3257834 - November 5, 2017, 1:51 am

I just use my parents account so I pay nothing...

Anyway, doesn't matter to me because I can't use my netflix anyway ? ? ? ? ?

Fear - November 5, 2017, 1:53 am

Just buy autoflix it's like $6/year or $10/lifetime it's really great

Kajjo332 - November 5, 2017, 1:55 am

I don't use Netflix for these reasons

SIM-99893 - November 5, 2017, 2:19 am

spradebassen - November 5, 2017, 3:59 am wait.. is it possible to crack netflix accounts!?!?!?

sp??k? - November 5, 2017, 4:03 am

Buying cracked acc was best for me here

ZooTedl - November 5, 2017, 4:13 am

I guess I'll just start buying cracked accounts lol

FakeTrumpTweetsiOSApp - November 5, 2017, 5:57 am

That's exactly why I stocked up on cracked accounts. I have over 600 accounts. Same with Spotify. They raise prices and this is why people crack them then in turn they raise the price again to narrow their losses if any.

Musta Barbaari - November 5, 2017, 2:42 pm

Meh I'll just start buying VHS tapes form flea markets and watch them. It's cheaper I guess

Killy - November 5, 2017, 3:03 pm

Netflix always be increasing their prices thats why I use kodi for all the tv shows test - November 5, 2017, 3:06 pm

$1 for a cracked account. Even if it only lasts one month, you are still saving like $10. I suggest doing this.

$ZEUS - November 5, 2017, 4:00 pm

Use a friends or an exes.. That's what the rest of the world does at least.

Dinklebergs - November 5, 2017, 4:07 pm

Didn't notice the price raise
I prefer Hulu
