Resolved goodluck with sales bud.

James Burnham - November 4, 2017, 3:29 pm

Most of the times are the upcoming designers that do the best job. At least in my opinion.

Ranger. - November 4, 2017, 3:30 pm

if this is supposed to be a CA instead of a DD then remove your invalid scam rep you faggot why are you crying when u never stated a deadline + why dont u just accept his refund instead of constantly asking for a preview?

SIMAAS - November 4, 2017, 3:30 pm

Are you retarded? You made a second thread when 99% of the community called you a moron?

If you are going to post the same thread, I'll also post the same comment:

"Seems like Simaas did nothing wrong, just shows that you are impatient. He offered you a refund, because of obvious reasons.

Now you open a scam report because he did not show proof of making a design for you? Pathetic lol just accept the refund and go spam/irritate another designer."

It was actually my 5000th post on your previous thread :D

Are you fucking retarded, this is a community alert warning other members. Read the post above you, I literally ask for a refund. The word pathetic fits you a lot better tbh.

Biggy - November 4, 2017, 3:33 pm

You seem like the worst person to do business with.

You're one of those types of people to walk into retail stores and give every single worker shit just for breathing.

Of course he wants to refund you, you act like a child. I'd refund you too, anyone would. This community alert is invalid, he said GIVE HIM TIME to finish and you rushed him like an impatient toddler.

Way to embarrass yourself.

If SIMAAS says wait, you wait.
He always delivers.

Alex DeLarge - November 4, 2017, 3:36 pm

I'm not sticking up for anyone.. but if he was almost done what's the harm in showing some progress, some people (myself included) just like to see the work in progression as it's pretty exciting.

I am not the one creating a community alert because I got offered a refund because I irritated someone and then declines it to ask for a refund later, right?

He never agreed to you in 'your' deal to send you any progress updates. As far as I can see.

Also, why should he send you any progress updates? You paid for the design, which didn't get delivered instead you got offered a full refund. If I would refund someone I wouldn't send any pictures of the progress anymore, simply because why should I? You are not my customer anymore.

You are posting a community alert because he did not send proof which indicates that he scams people? No, look at his thread, plenty of vouches and proof of previous work. Normally I do not reply to these kinds of threads, but this is a special case.

Copywriter - November 4, 2017, 7:06 pm

Just for a split second I was on your side, but after your moronic replies to this thread, I don't blame him one bit. I would get a fucking headache, and what's even worse is that it took you long enough to give him your BTC address.

Woods - November 4, 2017, 7:28 pm

After reading the thread and all the comments I personally would of given your money away in a giveaway and told you to fuck yourself. He asked for your BTC address multiple times, but your ego is too big to just take that. So try to prove a point and I would of made you eat those word at the end of it. Wouldn't really matter if he started your design or not if he is refunding you. If you don't send him the transaction ID I wouldn't blame him for keeping your money, you honestly are cancerous as fuck.

Ice Poseidon - November 4, 2017, 7:35 pm

Simaas could of just been honest instead of just lying. It's not about the money imo. I know a couple designers who do the same shit. It's annoying.

Pulz - November 4, 2017, 7:47 pm

@Simaas, he's pretty much rejected the refund at this point- I see no point to keep playing cat and mouse with him. Time is money, and he seems to have wasted plenty of yours.

I've made orders from designers in the past and actually have one currently working on a job right now.

I've been given expected dates, which have been missed- but you know what I did? I simply told the user to take their time, as art/graphic-work should never be rushed.

If you hadn't lashed out at the artist, you'd no doubt have your product right now.

If you hadn't started attention seeking and being an egotistical jerk, you'd no doubt have your refund by now.

Autophobia - November 5, 2017, 12:30 am

So you tell him do his best work and then rush him? Yeah because that gets the job done.

Why would you need progress reports before a refund? To waste his time more then you already have? Not everyone sits at home 24.7 tbh I do 98% of my hf browsing and deal making driving around in my car so I completely understand this.

50 dollars shouldn't carry this much stress and stupidity. Op all you did is make yourself look bad.

Hell I paid around 50 dollars plus tip here on hf for my mentorship thread and it was a premade I just had him add some shit onto his premade design. Quality work takes time and comes at a quality price

TB12 - November 5, 2017, 12:30 am

I can't be bothered to explain everything retarded about what you did but telling him you're not his slave when he asks for your transaction to give the refund is just stupid. Leave the forum, better yet, don't go to any store ever again.

So.... If I am correct, he is offering you a refund right now and you're not providing your transaction ID nor BTC address for him to send the payment back.

Please elaborate to me how SIMAAS is at fault here. You've practically tormented every one of his threads and then continue to harass him over the board because he claimed he was working on your thread when he wasn't. I hope you understand that he probably has a lot of orders in process and it's easily mistaken to which is which. You're not making it better for yourself right now.

Refund was taken a while ago. This is just here for future reference, in case another small customer tries to buy off simaas. He is very dirty and tries to act 'foreign' and 'clueless' so that he gets the benefit of the doubt.

The mentor situation just happened.

Yes, I joined a month ago. Yes, I spend a lot of time on this forum because I work online.

Yes, I bought awards because I like to contribute to places I spend my time and appreciate being.

This isn't my first forum, this isn't my only forum, and this won't be my last forum.

HF is similar to many other existing forums. And this also isn't the only forum I'm on and have spent money on. I'm not rich but I make a decent salary to contribute.

So go back to your stupid community alert and shut your mouth little boy, before I get your mother to put soap in it.

And in those two weeks, he's contributed more to the forum than you have in almost a year.

Is this thread an alert towards one user, or a flame thread for people you don't like?

Is this thread an alert towards one user, or a flame thread for people you don't like? and in those 2 weeks he has contributed more than the both of us. Stop looking out for your little multi buddy. I know you little hentai boys. You're either jacking off to anime or hustling on ur hf multi lmfao.

Lool biggy is just sitting on this thread now. Typical multi trying to save his name. You can go away now.

Thread is to alert customers of simaas, don't be fooled by his buddies trying to vouch for him on this thread.

Uh, thanks for backing my point?

I don't know Biggy.

Can't say I'm into hentai or anime either. And I'm pretty sure im not in possession of another account.

And yeah wow, he's just sitting on this thread! It's almost like he posted <5 minutes ago.

Also, I've never purchased from Simaas before. But I know an idiot when I see one, though.

Not trying to save anything, I'm a grown ass man, and I'm done posting on this thread. Don't need to argue with a 15 year old.

I never even knew/dealt with Simas before you made this thread. I could just tell by the way you hold yourself that you are one of the most immature people I've even seen on any forum I've ever been on.

I don't know Pulz either but he's clearly way smarter than you because he can see the bigger picture.

Good luck in your future bud, you'll need it.

Hey, I have an idea. Let's all stop posting in this thread from this point on.

That way, OP can only bump it once a day and we don't have to see this false report anymore.
^^^ this is when you claimed you were done posting on the last page. Okay multi boy, get off the thread. 300 rep in 30 days xD cant wait to see this exit.

I'm with you on that one, already given a damn today- I'm running on too short of a supply for this thread.

Young Dagger Dick - November 5, 2017, 12:35 pm

As you've said to everyone who opposes you "you're a fucking idiot"
