lol it's fine, you'll have to get a lot of hate, Just ignore the haters as they won't stop as you can just see on rep from some people (undeserved) not my specifically just saying some users are getting a lot of hate for no reason at all.

to be completely honest, i've tried to go down the serious route and listeners my age don't really understand it or know where im coming from. So one day I was so bored in college and literally came up with the most cancerous lyrics i could think of and made Bill Nye 2020 in about 20 minutes. Immediately everyone was like holy shit its dope etc and people actually listened to it. So i've decided to go down the mumble rap path
