Denimy is a chill and social clan (this doesn't mean we're not serious about winning wars and enforcing rules.)

Immature players don't last too long here, so if you're under, say, 16, you should look elsewhere. Feel free to request as many troops as you want, as long as you're also donating to others.

If you'd like to know more about Denimy, read the rest of the thread for requirements, rules, guidelines, and information about our monthly gem competition!

RequirementsYou must have a minimum of 100 war stars to join.

Before participating in war, anyone with under 350 war stars must share a replay of a war attack on an equal or higher level base in multiplayer, or demonstrate a war attack in a friendly challenge. (You only need to do this once.)

You must be Town Hall 6 or higher.

No rushed bases.

You must speak English fluently.

RulesKeep your war preference up to date at all times. (You can be in war as frequently or infrequently as you'd like, as long as you keep your war preference up to date.)

Always use both attacks in war.

Be respectful to other members.

Don't be a leech; donate troops when you are able.

Thou shalt not donate the wrong troops.

War GuidelinesAlways attack below your mirror unless everything below is already taken care of.

Bottom players attack early. (Preferably within the first 12 hours of battle day)

Check in to clan chat during war; communicate.

If you're unsure about what base to attack or what army to use, ask.

On preparation day, whoever can donate maximum level troops should help fill war CC's.

Even if you're not in war, you should help fill donation requests on battle day asap.

Promotions

Elder promotions are based on trust, activity, and war performance.

Co-leader promotions are based on the above factors, as well as maturity and leadership skills.
