Thread: Section Open

Omniscient - November 11, 2017, 11:40 pm

A request was made to open the suggestions forum again. So now it's open.

Night Fury - November 11, 2017, 11:44 pm

Thank you for bringing back a section that makes members feel like their opinions matter. :)

Biggy - November 12, 2017, 12:05 am

I wish I could make a suggestion for people to stop bitching and realize you need change in order to move forward. Not everything can stay the same.

Nuworld - November 12, 2017, 12:30 am

Um? This thread could turn into a mess.

I have some requests but will save for latter.

henry - November 12, 2017, 12:34 am

I take it users are not allowed to make suggestions to already disallowed things like junking threads?

He has stated before that this will never come back.

why?

so it can be abused once again?

M?xim - November 12, 2017, 6:31 am

Prepare yourself Omniscient. ?

?????? - November 12, 2017, 6:34 am

Probably isnt the best time to do it, as people will be suggesting things that you have already stated that need fixing.

ZooTedl - November 12, 2017, 6:46 am

Even though im.not a upgraded member I think the section should be for everyone but only upgraded members can post into it. If its a free for all it will get really messy.

ZuGgY - November 12, 2017, 11:33 am

Alright. Sweet. Thank you for informing us.

Elitas - November 12, 2017, 11:45 am

This is great news! Thanks for bringing this back!!!

bandors - November 14, 2017, 5:27 am

Welp, this is been quite a ride.

Do you have the numbers to back up your claim?

Making unfounded assumptions is not a smart thing to do.

I suggest that Omniscient make 2 identical copies of this website and it's related databases.

Keep one of them running while the other one you do all of the updates (off-line), fixing and other things that needs to be done.

If you fail to do this, you will regret this. Be smart and do the right thing.

That last line...who are you to command what Omni does or not? xD

Also, it's cool seeing the section back. Lots of people saying crap but there are some cool ideas that come up.
