Thread: XxBrosefhXX \(UID - 3091673\) False allegations.

Armada - November 12, 2017, 12:08 pm

The stupidity starts HERE with me laughing my ass off @ OPs clearly failed attempts to get his virgin dick wet.

He got salty about the obvious being pointed out to him, so I negged him.

Naturally as expected he gave me revenge rep. But this Salty virgin boys best retort is to say I attempts to Scam him, the made Death threats and then tried Blackmailing his dumb ass.

This is the actual conversation.

As you can all clealy see I made no threats or ANYTHING of what he claims, I just laughed at him and told him to go away.

So, a heads up to everyone else who decides to engage with this clueless kid, beware they will likely give you some really retarded reputation when they are shown to be stupid.

Edit:

Screen shot of REP he left in event he wakes up an changes it:

Bombaclut - November 12, 2017, 12:09 pm

OP IMO there was no need for this thread. Just calling him out and creating drama.

In my opinion, being called an attempted scammer, blackmailer and making death threats because some high school kid cant figure out how to get laid, can fuck my business and other shit up, so I feel this is totally necessary.

He is abusing his ability to give rep because he did not like someone elses opinion on the internet.

Unfortunately, reputation here is used however people want to use it. He paid for his upgrade and he can -3 you if he wants. However what you did was way out of line, you can't just rep people saying they tried to scam you and everything else when they did nothing of the sort. You're digging yourself a deeper hole.

I posted mine, if you feel I left something out screen shot it the fuck up and make a counter claim, until then I am calling your dumb ass out for being an attention seeking virgin whom can't even figure the other gender out, or even get a f*cking Hooker. You are full of shit and salty because you acted like a dick weed and tried to abuse the ability to use REP as an attempt to get back at me because you can not take honest criticism.

Show me the proof ot back the fuck down and shut up, others deserve to know how goddamn immature your dumb ass is, and I AGAIN point out, this is likely why you cant get a chicks panties off. Bitch.

You have made accusations of me attempting to scam you.
- Never ONCE had any business dealing with you.

You claim I made death threats against you.
Unreasonably and without ANY proof.

You blaim I tried to blackmail you.
How this even came to be about is beyond me.

I laughed at another posts and if you say your posts are all for entertainment why get so upset when another laughs at it all?
UNLESS I hit the truth and your actually upset because the truth was pointed out to you.

My rep is valid, yours was not, you made false allegations against me unreasonably. Because you got upset someone else pointed out the obvious AND I LAUGHED AT IT.

My rep wont change, and I wont close this thread off, simply due to your immaturity over the issue.

You threatened to report me for blackmail again because I sent you the STANDARD REP WARNING PM.

You cowardly little child. Fuck you, I wont back down, and you can threaten me all you want.
If I decide to DOX your ass due to these idle threats, you or your PARENTS will not be impressed with the legal paperwork I am willing to serve.

Your accusations do not just inflict on my personal character, but my Business interests as well.

I HIGHLY suggest you tread lightly from this point forward. ?
- OR consult a lawyer.

Ranger, My point to this thread is very simple.

He wanted to be a Lying little piece of shit and make bull shit allegations about me up.
I made him feel like the piece of shit he is. I told him in PM the same thing. "If you play stupid games, you will win stupid prizes"

Really not sure what he was thinking by making further threats to me for again pointing out obvious things (like giving me invalid scammer rep).
In fact had he just did a quick look at my previous posts and threads he would have quickly realized what most others know about me around here and that I really have no problem opening threads like this to draw attention to people who are being stupid wing bats.

Perhaps if he wants to apologize for making the false allegations and theats to call the authorities on me over total bull shit, I will reconsider. Otherwise, he can continue to feel like the lying piece of shit that he is.

However, you're making yourself look like a fool with opening this thread and replying to his messages.

Don't play power games on the internet, doesn't work. You should close this and leave it intact.

Shows maturity and shows that you're above him. Right now, I consider the both of you exactly the same level.

Never go as low as a fool, he'll know how to win.

Effexion - November 13, 2017, 10:23 am

Wow, man. More salt than I had on my fries before and that's a lot. Invalid rep as he says you tried to scam him (I think).

Saltpeter - November 13, 2017, 10:32 am

This thread gave me a good laugh. Taking the standard invalid scammer reputation message as an attempt at blackmail.

Please see This posting I have done so.

Hes changed his rep, but still made threats on that event.

Unacceptable.

I laughed at anothers posting, and he made a huge issue out of it, and made up a bunch of bull shit.

Awareness is key, and hes already admitted I have somewhat accomplished what I set out to do. ?

Awareness is indeed the key, but you could've closed this thread and just let it sit. No need to create a discussion about it.

Surely there is.

I have yet to get an apology from him for the false allegations.
Secondly, due to the upgrade, I can't close the thread myself. So it shall remain open.
