Thread: [\[THE EXECUTIVES\] Recruitment open to all - Apply via USERCP - Incoming Projects](#)

topdog77 - November 12, 2017, 3:47 pm

I have been silent with my group for a long time.

I have several projects I have privately been having completed intended to fund The executives aswell as breath some new life into groups and their uses.

1-2 of these projects are 1-2 weeks from completion and should be extremely effective in funding The executives long-term aswell as help groups grow again.

For now The executives is having OPEN recruitment, anyone and everyone may apply via Usercp and join. When I start releasing projects people who don't meet my cut will be kicked(It is a group named The executives after all, its not some random free for all group).

Thought I'd make a small announcement(this thread) and open recruitment temporarily.

I still have the like 200,000 posts and 2,000+ threads from The order and all that, there is a immense sum of guides, posts and information as I promised Krave I'd keep the old threads/posts and he promised the leader before him and so on. There is a absolute shit ton of data, guides and other misc things in the executives. Some of the information is nearly 2+ years old.

I have no use for all this information so I thought I'd give people a chance to have a look if they want anything ur welcome to it, there may be nothing but with 100 pages of threads and 200k posts theres probably been some good quality stuff over the past 2 years and its all still there.

I wrote this up quickly so if theres grammar/spelling errors etc, sorry.

Hope some people find the massive wealth of threads and posts useful over the next week or 2.
