GG, this is a valid scam report. Hope it doesn't die so you get more hate ?

??? - November 20, 2017, 11:09 pm

Almost exchanged with him a few times, and each time I asked him about why he never responded to his prior deal disputes involving btc, he would stop replying. Plus it kinda goes without saying take one look at his rep and it's obvious this guy can't be trusted. Why isn't he banned?

x2NaTe2x - November 21, 2017, 6:25 am

OP post a gif of you refreshing showing my signature matching the addy you sent too. You must have inspect element to take that screenshot, funny you couldn't do a gif? Haha. Invalid.

Check your rep scammer. This is a invalid scam report. You faked my signature in the picture with inspect element, not sure why you would want to open a report on me for no reason but you went extreme measures to do so. Whatever
