Thread: Crackvenue "rejected" me. how can i do cpa ?

terrahigh - November 21, 2017, 11:43 am

We at CrakRevenue strive to provide our partners with traffic only from the most qualified publishers and affiliates.

To maintain a healthy relationship with our partners, we must screen all applications. Unfortunately, our review of the information provided has resulted in our decision to deny your application at this time.

While you may not be joining us just yet, please keep working hard on growing your business. You can always re-apply at a later date if you build new sites or if your traffic sources change.

So my question here is now, how can i do cpa when im rejected?

There are a lot of CPA Networks. Crackrevenue is just one of them.

CPAGrip, MaxBounty, AdWorkMEdia and a lot of more networks.

For mobile traffic I recommend OGAds.

OGAds is a network, there aren't multiple of them.

Read what I said, thanks.

For adult traffic <http://www.clickcash.com/> or Crackrevenue will do, just re-apply to them.

CPAGrip was always my favorite. Been a part of them all.

CrackRev though how did you get denied lmao I have like 3 accounts and they've always accepted within 24 hours.

Just use whatever CPA Network you like, some of them have better offers for certain traffic sources and countries etc.

Well, depends on the network. Some networks monitor their traffic more closely than other's.

What traffic did you tell them you will bring?

SIM-2613601 - November 22, 2017, 4:16 am

You can try Adverten. They're "like" crakrevenue, you can get a smart link that choose's adult/dating offers based on country and device.

cryptomaniaq - November 22, 2017, 8:22 am if you need a similar adult cpa network you should try datinggold

Crak revenue was a victim of mass fraud recently probably from all the ewhores giving very very shit quality leads they really cracked down on who's allowed a account and who's not they also banned like 4k people including myself. But after giving them my sales funnels and promotion methods they unbanned me. But yeah that's why you were rejected due to the recent fraudings and them trying to stop that from happening again.
