Entro Pay or Dixipay both can deposit via btc.

don't even think about going to coinizy, its a huge scam.

I would recommend those 3:

shakepay.co - allows you to deposit with btc eth and a few more currencies, although their support is a bit slow

bitwala.io

cryptopay.me

Thank you everyone, sadly all these sites give prepaid cards not instant virtual cards. Finally I had to use my personal card.

When was the last time you've used it? I used it fine maybe 9 months ago? But i've deposited $70 to their website 3 months ago and never saw it on my account, they never replied to my tickets at all and they keep taking their website down.

they might've been legit in the past, but they're not now. 'idiot'

If you're in the U.S. Privacy.com does instant virtual cards with AVS

I believe you're looking for a shift card? You can connect shift to your bitcoin and any debit transactions are taken from your BTC balance
