iGnite - November 23, 2017, 7:00 am

What crime would you get away with and whyy?

This is serious topic, because life is crazy somtimes.

Lor?d - November 23, 2017, 7:01 am

If I could get away with one single crime, I would have to pick robbing a bank containing a few million $$$.

Caliban - November 23, 2017, 7:15 am

Oh boy i better not tell you all the depraved shit i would do ohxerxe - November 23, 2017, 7:16 am

Unfortunately any and all forms of Marijuana are illegal in my state, so would like to cultivate a nice little harvest and get away with it.

What state do you live in? And why not move to a state where marijuana is legal?

Or do you have a strict code of holy honor regarding where you would or would not grow marijuana lol

Drugs and rape?

What is a few million - is that like 2, or 5, or somewhere in between?

frsnix - November 23, 2017, 8:07 am

Rape is too unethical, but robbery can be something.

SIM-2223238 - November 23, 2017, 8:07 am

Robbing a bank, stealing from the riches. Why not?

Elitas - November 23, 2017, 8:09 am

Depends what defines "getting away with it".

I wouldn't rape someone if they had to live with the horrible effects and I with the guilt of it.

However, if they have no recollection of it and I don't have to get any sort of fight (as in, consensual to a point), then it would be something worth considering. I still don't think I would ever be able to force somebody to have sex with me no matter what the situation is, jailtime should not be a prime motivator for anyone to not commit rape or any other crime for that matter.

A victimless crime such as robbing a bank (which basically takes money from the government in the end, at the small cost of a fraction of tax payers money), would be worth it; possibly.

2-3 million and i'd be more than happy.

Way more than enough to pay off my mom's shit and get her a decent home and vehicle.

young.kurt - November 23, 2017, 8:35 am

I'd open a 24/7 Club in a giant building, Snort molly and bang a variety of tasteless ladies while racking in profit..

Drugs are the only option that don't involve actively hurting someone else for your benefit, so that's defo the play.

That1Dude - November 23, 2017, 8:37 am

I'd murder, a local child rapist the other things are just sick

ZerFallen - November 23, 2017, 8:52 am

Niklas Kronwall - November 23, 2017, 10:16 am lol robbery. You can already get away with that shit if you are smart enough. Rape would be more difficult but if I found a hot enough chick hands down 10 out of 10 ign would bang :D

should die right now

I pick robbery

Grey Goose - November 23, 2017, 10:56 am

Robbery. I'll rob a money transport central (The money transport HQ). Someone did it in Denmark some years ago and ended up with like $10 million dollars.

Kawaiiteddy - November 23, 2017, 1:37 pm

It may sound crazy but I think I could have a high chance of getting away with murder. Now I'm not basing this because I've watched so many CSI episodes :) But I've seen and read a lot about murder and it's mostly all about planning the best murder. If your plan isn't good it's a really high chance they will catch you. But most of all it's all about your relationship with the person you want to kill, if you have a really good motive to kill someone of course they will look at your direction! lol

Indiana, and it would be completely ridiculous to move to a legal state unless I was using marijuana to treat a life threatening disease or something. The reason I wouldnt grow here right now is because I would get locked up for the amount I want to grow for personal use.

No I don't think I would regret doing so afterward. I tend to view almost everyone as an object to begin with. As for having a specific someone in mind, I don't. I merely think the experience would be like no other.

I would probably pick "smuggling" millions of dollars worth of cocaine across the border. The mule who would succeed in doing that would get a paid a good $50,000 or so. I would be perfectly fine with that. Not to mention it's a victimless crime.
