This is resold on ALL the forums about cheating. Hundreds of people using this. Not very secure and ofc it is not private.

Everyone can buy this so how can this be private? ? ? ? ?

Quit sales trashing please.

Xsal_Ice - November 24, 2017, 3:47 am

I asked pre-sales questions.

Im interested in buying this is why i ask :-)

So how can this be private when the whole world can buy it? You have no limits / restrictions and this is sold on many forums.

Answer pls.

We thrive to be very secure. No one got banned through a detection update.

And what is private with this hack then? Nothing tbh. It is not invite only. It does not have limited slots. It is just a normal product EVERYONE can buy.
Tell me when i am wrong.

Yet no one has gotten banned from anti security update.
We take our time between updates to make sure everyone is as safe as possible. But at the end there is always a risk. There is pubg hacks that are private yet got detected. It honestly doesn't matter if it' invite only or not invite only. It depends on the devs and how much they take pride on their security. Now if you have any further questions please feel free to contact me through PM.

Xsal_Ice - November 24, 2017, 7:02 am

I asked you what is private with this hack?
You advertise it as PRIVATE. (PRIVATE ESP - AIMBOT)

Explain my why u call it PRIVATE.

This is my question. No need for PMs. Other customers can read pre-sales questions so they dont need to ask same questions.

Thanks.

Private LINE ESP. That currently I believe we are one of the few cheats that have it.
I never called the cheat private. In the title it says PRIVATE ESP.

This shit coming from you is only laughable, have you seen your threads? Mr "private bypass" How long did that public shit last? Fucking hypocrites galore on HF.

At least it would appear they've still got a working hack considering their mass sales. ??

Dude I am just curious why would anyone pay 3x the price of the game for only one week of a hack?

That is crazy, especially because there is no reward for winning a game of pubg besides a chicken dinner lol. GLWS though, the price just seems absurd for what it is.
