Thread: Negged by Young Sosa uid 2973133 because I refused to give him a product for free

d3lta - November 23, 2017, 4:09 pm

I recently got multiple PMs from Young Sosa, asking for my XMR miner and saying that he could help me sell it.

As soon as I said no, he asked one more time for it, I refused again and he instantly negged me.

Just wondering if this is allowed or if its rep abuse

I don't believe this is against the rules.

His reputation is within policy users don't need a reason to leave a deal with caution rep as you should always deal with caution on Hack Forums, the only person you should fully trust here is Omniscient.

Not abuse. You can be negged for pretty much any reason as long as they don't call you a scammer in it and neglect to link to a deal dispute made by them.

We recommend you take the time to read the HF Help Documents section. The answer to your questions should be contained in there.

Stupid, but within the forum rules....

Don't sweat it, its just a number on the internet anyways.

The screenshots don't really show the dialogue back and forth so they're pretty useless

but if he negged you because you didn't give him anything for free that's sad

Yeah its allowed lol, some people on HF are just dicks, you got to learn to deal with it :/

Asking for vouch copies isn't allowed unless they are offered in the thread take screenshots and send it to a staff member other then that you can't do much.

Despite there being no logical reason for the negative reputation it is completely within the rules. On the other hand I see you aren't inquiring about the illogical, unearned positive reputation you have. Funny how that works.

Reputation is valid.
