No, it's new coin. BTW those big coins are difficult with normal VPS.

PS : Thanks for the guide but unfortunately I cannot install any software. Good for other browsing activities.

Thanks for sending me this, OP.

This method works guaranteed. These aren't stolen/hacked VPS. This is a business offering them for free. You are unfortunately limited to what you can install and run on the VPS though. So far I've only been able to use the software that comes pre-installed. Regardless, it met my needs.

Well, I was right, this is another apponfly and these threads for this site are annoying b/c apponfly only allows a very short period of time to access and actually use any browsing because they limit your usage intentionally.

It's a major waste of time.
