Thread: Just got top 500 as a McCree / Hanzo main!

Jake???????????????? - November 29, 2017, 1:46 pm

I'm a pretty dope McCree / Hanzo but I flex and play ana, lucio, any tank, and those two as DPS or a genji. Just got my top 500 officially on Xbox one as rank #496, first time I've ever been top 500.

edit: i don't use keyboard and mouse like all of those fruitbags in top 50

Didn't you just make a thread bitching about the game? lmao

If you played the game at a high skill level you'd understand.

Also, I'm now top 400. Essskettittttt

That means nothing. There could be tons of reasons why me and you are at different levels. Game sense, mechanical skill, team composition and ult/ability usage are one of the most important in ranking up. I know players with poor mechanical/aim skill that main Sym and Mercy and are in top 500 but have excellent game sense. You might just have great game sense and that's why you're higher than me, but it doesn't mean you're mechanically more skilled than me.

Ha, just curious what is your gamertag? Or at least what are your stats on overbuff?

I'm not being hostile btw, I noticed you sounded a bit hostile, but I'm just genuinely asking

Skill Rank

i don't really see where i can tell you my McCree rank but I'm confident in my McCree considering it's mostly how I got to top 500

i'm an amazing ana lucio, zarya winston roadhog, mccree soldier and genji tho so I can flex them but I mostly play mccree

I haven't played enough McCree this season neither so I can't check my rank. But good job though, McCree is a very satisfying character to play if you can land those headshots and have good aim. I also love Lucio, one of my favourite support.
