All my friends died to another squad in pochinki (clip here - <https://plays.tv/video/5a212600a0d31efd88/lit?from=user>)

Just looking for tips to improve my play, any of you guys really good at the game??

Switch to the X4 scope when going long range with an M16. Its not automatic anyway so if you are at range, a X4 is way better than a holo to get those headshots.

hmm u didnt have helmet and your vest got a lot of damage and you didnt notice that i guess because when you lotted
but i like your play style

You repeek way too much, try changing your position after taking fire. Looting looked quite dangerous to me aswell, wouldn't suggest looting unless you're 100% sure there's no angle you could get shot from.

Also try to split up more, 2 frags could've stomped you guys easily in the first minute.

don't get greedy for loot and take 20 mins looting and thinking of what to take just think of what you need b4 you even press tab / E to loot i lost many games cuz of teammates getting greedy for loot taking to long looting dead bodies its your first time playing game like pubg?

just start to play on sound iprove aim. play some games for good reflexs and aiming.

i played a lot of cs 1.6. cs go battlefield and etc. this game was easy for me. its all about playing a lot. just play mindgames on pubg. i can win on pubg game (solo) when am 1-1 and would have only 1 kill. if i play with my mates its easy game. we are team from old games.

I came from csgo and arma 3 so this game is easier for me. Usually 5-6 frags at least a game depending on where I land. Just gotta get used to some of the recoil and controls.

if you have decent pc it mustnot be hard for you. i play on gtx 750 ti and i3 with lags and etc. try to control recoil on walls and you will see how bullets going. when you see player you must know on wich distance you must spray and move cross to get easy kill

Try flanking more and changing positions, at the start you could have easily went all the way around and shot all of them from the other side of the wall. But your aim is pretty decent. I also came from Arma 3 with 4,000 hours on it, and this game feels pretty easy, just try moving around a little bit more and you should be good to go.
