Thread: [\[Easy money\] Make hundreds of dollars with RuneScape \[Method for sale\]](#)

Masterlovin - December 3, 2017, 7:27 pm

Hello,

I have been using this method to hack and obtain a lot of wealth on RuneScape for the past couple of months. However, it has become a bit difficult for me to keep up with the logs and looting them. Therefore I want to invest in a automated system using this method. I want to sell a couple copies to fund my automated system. I will offer a 25% discount on the automated system if any of the three buyers is interested in it.

This method has been treating me good, but as aforementioned it's becoming too much for me to handle without an automated system.

Media (loots I got):

EDIT: added a new screenshot/gif:

Price: $450

You repped the OP exactly a year ago "kek". Slightly suspicious.

Pretty impressive, you earned 1.4b after buying the method? Or did you know OP before purchasing?

Waiting for more vouches.

I use Adams' panel to collect, when he noticed my traffic he asked me about it. I sold him it at the time for $450. He's been using it ever since, and both of us have been making a decent amount from this. It's a pretty good method, since I don't have the tendencies to brag about good the method is or that I am the founder of this method. I kept it to myself for 5 months now. I just want to sell 3 copies to fund the automated project. I don't want to touch my money that I've invested in to cryptocurrency.

Give me a vouch copy I can verify this, it seems that the vouch someone gave previously is a bit suspicious.

Hello,

Thank you for your offer, but I wouldn't want that. I don't want to give this method out to more people than I have to. I have most of my profits invested in cryptocurrency. The only reason I decided to sell 3 copies is to speed up the process. The longer a sale takes, the more money I make. Resulting is less copies being for sale.

I don't want to reveal the method just for a review. I don't really want to sell it. But if someone does purchase it, they can write a review if they want.

Thank you though, for your offer.

Edit:

My only other concern is that it looks like the income was decent but has since dropped off with basically no income Nov 4 - Dec 4? How much time per week and profit per week?

in the months of September and October I was only active for like 2 weeks max and made 3K - I have no income for nov and dec since I started selling everything for BTC. As I mentioned before, I started investing in BTC so I have most of my income go towards my "piggy bank" filled with BTC.

Purchased the method. Guy is great. Was super helpful in explaining it. I have started using them method and will know in a day or so how great it is. Seems amazing so far and support is also amazing. Worth more than he is charging.

Edit: So far I have only "broke even". Hoping that I'll see results today.

I do not know this user, user has not purchased the method from me. Neither have I asked user to vouch. This individual his vouch is fake. I don't want any BS on my thread. Reported it.

What sort of requirements does this method rely on?

Add me on discord if you're really interested, then we can IM and I will be able to answer all your questions. Without risking any clues out in public. If that makes sense.

Edit: just got this loot

More than likely a phising site correct from edward lol

Masterlovin - December 16, 2017, 8:40 am

Method is still for sale, 2 copies left.

This has to be something fishy, unless there's an unknown money making method that only this guy knows, highly unlikely though. I'm very interested but won't purchase before actual screenshots showing legitimate proof from buyers are supplied.

You can ask for a review from Philosophies, Marcel Adams and B4ROT - Thanks for the bump.
