So i was just browsing arround and found this deal at : Otto.de

When you order something for 40 EUR or above, and you enter the voucher code : 82617 at checkout, you will be receiving a free google home mini with it.

Great to catch one whilst you are shopping for presents anyway ?

So, technically a google home mini for 40EUR haha.

But thanks for the tip, it's actually all over Europe, here in France we have similar offers in different stores to get the home mini.

oh damn, i didn't know that.. Obviously the google home mini is not costing you 40 EUR if you need to buy something anyway..
