After he scammed over 20 users with his public SE method & by stealing donations in Summer (He scammed way more uses than the links above, most users didn't post their deal disputes because they thought the community alerts were enough).

After all the Community Alerts & Deal disputes made against him. He comes back at it again with another scam. Scamming me $300:

Deal dispute 3 = <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5763246>

Because of his ruthless scam, now I cannot afford my rent anymore and have no other way to receive funds, thanks lookin, thanks for literally ruining my life.

This is a community alert to avoid users from being the 30th victim of his scam addiction.

The worst of it all?

1- He claims to have over $500,000 in his bank account here <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5625805> so basically he is scamming people even though he is loaded. Pretty pathetic.

2- He uses his "friendship" with Omniscent to shield him and to allow him to make more scams, as you can see in the Youtube video in his scam against me.

Lookin has been known to be scammer, what was your reasoning to deal with him?

Crake - December 5, 2017, 2:08 pm

This looks like a scam accusation, which belongs in the deal disputes section. You risk getting banned posting a thread like this.

We recommend you take the time to read the HF Help Documents section. The answer to your questions should be contained in there.

My reason in dealing with him is that I need(ed) money right now to live, this wasn't just extra spending cash for me otherwise i wouldn't have dealt with him and I wouldn't have even sold my gp in the first place, I love rs and it lets me get away from my daily life. Nobody else was buying the gp either so I had to take what I could get unfortunately.

Here is everything I have: <https://imgur.com/a/9ADdi>

I thought I had enough to finish the semester but I didn't, I had medical expenses that popped up and took out a large portion of my savings.(Thank you US healthcare)

Without giving out details: <https://imgur.com/a/M8sek>

I needed the money for gas to drive to my finals, food for myself, food for my dog, and to pay a few bills.

I normally don't deal with the marketplace, but when I have I never had an issue even with people having a couple negative rep. I thought there would be some humanity on HF but I guess I thought too much.

Not unless he sold it a long time ago, some of those reports are pretty old.
