Thread: Found \$250 in an old Bitcoin wallet

I had an account on a website called btc-x which is now known as CoinsBank. in 2015 I was pretty active on bitcoin talk and sold my signature space to this website. I got paid ~0.016 BTC per week into an account on their website. I guess I left my last payment in the account and forgot about it until today when I needed to use their website and logged in to find $250 in my account, not much but a pretty funny find.

Man, these BTC stories, exciting but like why still no one here found 5,000 BTC on a old wallet. I found a week back that my 0.05 cent in BTC was sent to me for free in 2013 is now 1 euro xd.

i see all these stories about finding old wallets, and after watching that new "big bang episode" about bitcoin. i went on hunt to look for all sites and wallets relating to bitcoin i used couple of years ago but with no luck :p

Brilliant, Haha! I found an old wallet yesterday with 0.05 in. Last time I checked the wallet, it has the equivalent to £5. Cashed it out for £500 :P Nice to see lots more people having the same success.

If you have ever gambled with Cloudbet or any other company, check them wallets to. Worth a check, aye?
