Fully resolved. thanks spark

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 5:13 pm

User never sent me the ebook. I requested refund and user flips out on my screaming about his TOS. I advised that no product was received except a zip file containing instructions to post on his sales thread again and wait to be contacted. No contact other than answer a question I sent before payment was sent.

All I asked was my money back, it's not like i recieved his ebook.. so this doesn't make much since to me.

User keeps contacting me over PM to unblock on DISCORD for refund. I keep stating that communications over PM is perfectly fine. User has yet to refund.

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 5:21 pm

The definition on an uber user who thinks hes inferior over everything. Mate you are being offered a full refund ontop of the chargeback non-sense you have caused and you're still attempting to cause problems? Let me know when you've put that ego of yours to the side and unblocked me on discord.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 5:43 pm

How the fuck did I scam you? You have my fucking money you piece of shit, you scammed me. You don't need me on discord, just send me the fucking refund and we will go about our day. Jesus.... you'll making a fucking priest wanna kill himself. I have asked you 1000 times to just send me a refund.. you know damn well you didn't send me that fucking ebook. Now, you've posted my personal information online, which i greatly appreciate, and besides that, you're lying out your fucking teeth. You don't need me on discord to send the refund.. just send the refund, I'll remove all posts from your thread, and we can go about our lives. Jesus..

Who in the fuck takes someones money, then creates a deal dispute?! If you sent me the ebook, I would understand, but we both know at this point you are stealing my money. Now please.. return it. Thank you.

Saltpeter - December 8, 2017, 5:49 pm

Posting someone's private information publicly is a great way to get people on your side. You should really try a little harder with those thin red lines.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 5:54 pm

He keeps insisting he is giving me a full refund, but has yet to send it. I have accepted his full refund, but nothing yet. Lets see how this goes.

Purple Kief - December 8, 2017, 5:59 pm

Wait you exactly just released his dox? ?

Edit: That little red line does little in blurring anything lol.

He's a class act..

Stole my money, released my personal information, created a deal dispute on me..

He's a fine piece of work. I'll be sure to never deal with this guy again..

Think that's bannable too hehe xd

Don't like op, hope u get ur refund sparkss

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 6:05 pm

Post edited didn't realize parts were leaking info (using a stealth pp anyways). This child has already done a CB have offered him a full refund by simply removing his flame post on my sales thread (even after he has done cb and caused non-sense issues because of his ignorance) and he still wants to make problem. Ok no worries you child.

Believe it or not...

It's not bannable. I reached out to Omni about it, and Omni said it was perfectly fine. That blew my mind.

I told Omni that my wife and daughter both live here, and it really is dangerous to have my personal information out there like that, especially on THIS forum, and he just says.. "Good luck" so.. today i just got hella fucked over.

Fuck no I'm not removing that.. You have me all kinds of fucked up. You caused me this much headache, I'm gonna make sure no one else has this headache either.

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 6:07 pm

Well, looks like I will be fighting this chargeback instead of providing a refund to this user. Offered him a full refund several times but obviously this hard head wants to cause the issues. Beware of this scammer.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 6:09 pm

No, you said "delete your [sparkks] post of my [rysko] thread" and I denied because I don't want anyone else to go through this. I would rather you keep the money and me continue to help others from getting scammed.

Keep the money? This is a report about your chargeback YOU made in attempts to get your MONEY BACK what do you mean "keep the money" LOL? I have peacefully offered your money back to you and instead your ignorance has lead you to believe that you are 100% right in every situation. Stop lying to yourself you ignorant hard-head.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 6:25 pm

This is my public announcement that I am awaiting the refund. Please send now. Once refund has been sent, deal dispute will be resolved.

Plus.. this is a fake deal dispute... you stole my money but never gave me a product.

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 6:33 pm

"once refund is sent deal dispute will be resolved"

This is my dispute you child, you are the one doing a chargeback.

Deany - December 8, 2017, 6:37 pm

Are you really that poor to not refund the dude his money? If he didn't receive your product why keep his funds hostage? I hate people like you

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 6:37 pm

 edit user has now made a scam report after opening a chargeback LOL.

I offered this plenty of times.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 6:55 pm

That is a fucking fake message!!!!

See.. you're shady af.. I asked for a refund 500 times and you kept saying it's against your TOS. I'm done replying. I'll deal with it via PayPal. Have a great day.

For someone so confident in proving him wrong you're doing a pretty bad job.

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 6:57 pm

I am still pming him right now offering a refund for his chargeback and this guy continues to cause issues.

theFxTradeMan - December 8, 2017, 8:21 pm

You keep saying you're offering, but not giving.. what's holding you back from refunding me?

Twist. - December 8, 2017, 11:42 pm

Full refund sent, thanks.

theFxTradeMan - December 9, 2017, 9:08 am

Thanks. issue resolved. post and rep fixed.

Billabanger - December 20, 2017, 5:43 pm

I'd also like my refund too, Rysko.

Will post proof of purchase if necessary..

Not cool man. Been trying to contact you for weeks.

HypoLiize - December 21, 2017, 10:27 pm

I would like my refund aswell.
