Thread: Scammed by @Ben! | \$25 | UID=3316202

GH057 - December 9, 2017, 8:32 am

I sold him AGC and went first. After a while I wanted to check if I had got any update from him, but he had blocked me on HF.

Then I went to check if the AGC is still unused and it wasn't.

You should provide evidence of a scam

Corwin - December 9, 2017, 8:34 am

How pathetic. Who the fuck scams. Sorry about that man, hope you get this resolved, but this piece of shit is probably just a multi going on a scamming spree. This is like the 5th scam report I've seen this morning.....

Also, proof would be preferred on a scam report. ?

Riyu - December 9, 2017, 8:34 am

.....he had tons of scam reps and his CE thread had a bunch of people warning about him....

Why would you deal with him seeing his reps, this thread, and his excuses?

Me being ignorant and trusting someone with an ub3r group. Just being honest. Lesson learned.

Never trust anyone just because of them being a "higher ranked member" or because they're ub3r, l33t, ep1c, or r3kt.

Do your research before dealing with anyone, be safe NOT sorry.

If I could emphasize this to everyone on this forum anymore. DO NOT MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE AS ME

He negged me for posting a DWC about him. He's very toxic and obviously on a exit scam spree. This is his second DD in 24 hours. Dude is going at it lol ironican - December 12, 2017, 9:33 am

He just scammed me for 50$ lol, I was lazy & dumb and didn't check rep well enough. I don't understand how he thinks scamming people on hack forums is smart, he already is doxed.

Canadian - December 12, 2017, 9:37 am

Looks like he's trying to squeeze a few more in
