Lets start this off I order a few things off Newegg it even got shipped early so I'm like awesome lets go. Suppose to arrive thursday so I'm like okay thats fine I see the vehicle is out for delivery awesome can't wait but then delivery exception out of no where so I don't care shit like this happens they are overwhelmed fine as long as it comes before the weekend. So next day I wake up awesome it's on the truck again then while im eating lunch BOOM delivery exception this time it says someone ordered future delivery WHAT THE FUCK WHO THE FUCK DID THIS? I call up the seller they said they didn't do shit so I called fedex and they said yeah i'll let them know. few hours later they said it's back at the facility and will be delivered monday. I'm like hell no I'm picking this shit up now so I asked this dumb motherfucker is it 100% there they said yes the facility manager said they have it okay I get off work I'm waiting there to pick up the package after 30 minutes these mother fuckers said they couldn't find it HA. So they call up the dumb mother fucking driver and he said "Yeah i delivered it I don't remember exactly but I delivered it" they couldn't find it either so I'm like okay i'll go home i didn't have a choice really they just fucking gave up. Anyways going home i'm praying to fucking god it's there walk in NOPE ZIP ZERO NOTHING. I call them they said yeah we can't find it at the moment we'll try again later on. Next morning they said hey good news we found ur package you can come pick it up keep in mind it's fucking saturday so I said nah i'll wait for monday for you to ship it I ain't doing your job for you fuckers. Keep in mind this bitch leaked information by mistake that the package was on the wrong truck twice pretty sure she wasn't suppose to tell me that. Because both instances they said I did the future delivery request and it was me fucking bitch ass fucking fucks. So i had to be somewhere close to the facility so i'm like hey maybe i can go and pick it up in time I call these motherfuckers they said ah yeah we're closed only security WHAT THE FUCK? I looked that bitch called me at 9:46am and the security said they left the office at 10am BITCH. I check later in the day it updated the status to "Held for pickup" I knew from the instant I saw this they were about to fucking fuck with me again. They either want to delay it to tuesday or they want me to do the job for them by picking it up fucking bitch ass fucking fedex I'm about to cave some fucking heads in. I'm at boiling point now I'm calling the office at 3am because I know these bitch asses start their shifts at 3am because the security guard told me people start at 3am. If I do not get my shit by monday some fucking heads are going to get caved in.

TLDR; READ IT

Yeah man I've had some issues with packages being delivered too. I had a package go the wrong direction and get re routed once or twice as well as other fuck ups. If I don't get it by monday-tues I would start a complaint with the company itself. Also had some shit take a few days longer than it was suppose to Also.

These are the times I wish we got everything mailed by drones lol.

These people cannot even deliver a package thats already on the truck. drones? forget about it these fools would crash it into your home and destroy your package.

Also seems like the delivery truck drivers are lazy as fuck and have no clue what they are doing half the time. RIP

I wonder if the California fires have something to do with the delays in shipping right now

Not only that but it's holiday season
