I've used this product and keep in touch with him regularly. Amazing support and product, definitely more successful executions than IONMINER. i imgur com/SVFuLhS png
By the way the reason for the drops on the chart is that the dashboard was down/being fixed during those times, kept the hashes and miners from that.

haven't tested it, but for the best i will only support for monero mining customers atm

i'm working on few improvement

- new anti task system, processhacker, process manager, and taskmanager won't find it
- new core system that made make the miner more stable and users harder to detect

and another GPU Miner is prepare to release

C++ Version will be release in next year (around Q2 Q3) if this project going good thanks for all your vouch/supports, hope that you will enjoy encore miner !

Hi guys was buy this service from him and here is my review:

I checked him stub with reverse exe file and IP method guess he is inject him own RAT this stub Agent Tesla or he is work with agent tesla and thread say " C# / C++ | The most stable MIXED XMR miner" but when execute miner stub ask to download .NET Framework 3.5 on updated windows 10 PC (not virtual machine PC) so if this mean miner not coded with C++ or C#.

I guess he is have alt accounts on HF good reviews coming from him own alt accounts. If anyone think to buy this service please attention my words just deal with caution.

Alright, here's my completely honest review and experience with the miner.

To be honest, my initial experience with the miner was not good. The first handful of builds he sent me did not work. I've been testing on a separate laptop to ensure it was nothing glitch with a VM. Most of the times the miner wouldn't run, occasionally it would run but either at 100% or 0%, no in-between, regardless of what the PC was doing. So at first this was very disheartening.

But the support is fantastic. Every time I would test and have an issue, I'd message on Skype and he'd get back to me pretty quick. He's probably sent me 5 or so different builds now trying to see what the issue was. So while it was unfortunate to have the issues I did, it was great to have him quickly responding to me and actually dealing with the issue.

As of yesterday, it seems the issue was solved and the miner is working great. Will give an update in a few days!

Bought days ago and got already 6 bins which are all not working. Startup were not working and now he removed the startup feature in his thread, because he cant handle this. Now he will send me a crypted bin to add the startup, so its just shit.

For 150$ I want my miner and not 6 bins, I am not your test object.

every time he told me that a file is missing. Thats why the file can't added to startup. I tested in vm and on real laptop. My laptop and my vm have both not the file which was needed, sure.... this person just write shit.

Then a message popup: <https://s14.postimg.org/unft271rl/Untitled.png>

He told me that is because of the icon. I need to change the icon and then the message is not there. Bullshit. Every other miner have no icon and all is working fine.

I am done with this. Hope you have fun with my $150. Bye.

its depend on the package you buy, normally its have already bypassed most AV, but you can crypt it with Spartan or Cyberseal for FUD runtime ouput (scantime too).

From what I have read spartan is not FUD at the moment they have a detection of over 4 AV.
Correct me if I`m wrong.

Before I bought it, I did a lot of research.

All miners of hf and all miner of nulled.to were investigated.

At the end, I had three options. The other two were cheap, but eventually I chose this.

As a result, I think this program is worth my price. I am very satisfied.

After using this I have found that it is more stable than any miner I've used before and got very good results.

He helped me a lot in addition to miner while selling this to me and was impressed with his service.

That's why I write vouch for his service so long. Want the best results? Choose this, you do not have to hesitate.

I have already reviewed all the data, selected it, and got good results. If you want the best results, you should use the best tools.

if you don't know that will be stupid function, changing the percentage = force shutoff, checking idle = consume resource, and make it dead when you mining 100%. but yes i can do that if you want me to.

keep in mind people will notcie whatever you used over 30%, they always have something like advanced systemcare to monitor their CPU usage, and better to use some technique that always giving the resource to proper progress so their pc won't be much slow down when they need it.

(Sep 27, 2018 01:19 PM)buqbox Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I can buy, but I need a test a while that runtime can you give to me stup

Scantime scan (crypted output) : <https://spyralscanner.net/result.php?id=wEIZGHlvWL>

Runtime scan (crypted output) :

Norton : Static Heur Generic = ICON/Assembly

Symatec = Static HEUR Generic (icon/assembly)

Eset = Static Detection

the runtime almost F.U.D, and if you use Spartan crypter or Cyberseal Crypter, its will give you FUD runtime output :)

incase you can use my subcription to get protected with better result.

most of it scantime detect, not runtime only Bitdefender is runtime and Emsisoft are detected in runtime and can be fix with crypter.

its dynamic, depending on the user usage to increase/decrease performance and make sure that the miner as quiet as possible, so recording clip won't be able to show the hashrate or whatever relevant when it's consuming the pc resource.

The miner can be customized as the customers will.

I know but I need you make the mining on the graphic cards 15%

then show us the graphic card type and the hash rate

then we will make sure it's GPU not CPU only

I will stop the sales now, too lazy to continue this project

All customers already bought this still have 100% support, update to this project, just contact me via Telegram some customers will be cut out if they trash talk.

@Bre1911
