To add to this I actually just Messaged Omni about this issue, Sorzus has secured his 2FA and replaced his lost phone, which caused the security concern, I hope him to be unbanned by end of day.

As for r0ffles testimony:

Quote:How I found HF.

In the year 2014 I use to hang around a lot on IRCd servers, just chilling, joking but making loads of new friends and I loved the way that Online Social life was. So I decided to create my own IRCd server, and as my server was growing bigger and bigger with more members joining each week i started to get a lot of problems, like people ddosing me off-line then coming back bragging I had been owned and all the other rubbish, so to look in to this more on how to stop the situation I googled ddos protection and came across HF. The place looked massive full of different options on what to look through and learn. There and then I had to register and join up, within the first year of just browsing here and making posting comments I loved the place that much I tried creating my own forum just the same, which was a huge failure lol.

EXACT SAME REASON I found my way here.

Ran and IRC network and some dick kept knocking us offline, and after the rebuild I joined here looking for someone to stress test the network. ?

Nice edition, I enjoy the way the design for the News has changed as time went on.

Raz Riverblade - December 12, 2017, 7:45 pm

Noooooooo!

I'm going to miss Nev a lot :(

Who Soup - December 12, 2017, 7:51 pm

Damn nice to see the money making section coming up in growth. Hopefully we'll get more good numbers soon :)

M?xim - December 12, 2017, 11:09 pm

I actually enjoy these shorter editions way more. It sums up things that happened on the forum the past week and not news that i can read on news-sites.

Hydra - December 14, 2017, 12:52 pm

Next edition will include some new additions + changes. Will be looking for your feedback!

King Joey - December 19, 2017, 10:49 pm

Awesome News! Always looking forward to reading this :)
