Sorry I couldn't get the last two, imgur being weird.

Mainly asked for a simple trans; sent him the money, get an email saying he accepted it, and now I'm blocked

EDIT: Changed his name to @Winter

Yeah I saw his post before and if you do a UID search you will soon find if he's reported scammer or not. Sorry for your loss OP

Apparently he's been doing transactions recently.

Most Likely friends, or some people he paid.

Yeah I think I'll leave it now. Rather receive less off someone else than be scammed for £500
