Thread: Scammed by Dota 2 UID = 3232154 - 1,50\$

Quick - December 12, 2017, 7:26 pm

So I got scammed by this person named Dota 2 , Profile link = <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3232154>

Basically He posted a thread in the gfx marketplace section looking for someone to refine a logo and he said that he will pay 1.5$, I took care of that and sent him at first a sample then he asked me to correct some aspects of the image and that's what I did, after that I sent him 3 versions and he liked the second version and took it, and never paid me. As I said as soon as I sent him a pm with 3 versions and told him which one he liked the most he answered me " The second one" and then no answer after that, I waited several days and sent him several messages after that asking for the payment and told him that I was going to open a deal dispute if he keeps ignoring me.

I could've have forgiven him for the 1.5$, but what pushed me to open this dispute is the fact that he kept ignoring me in addition, if he scammed me for just 1.5$ it means that he will certainly scam other members for larger amounts so better be careful with this person.

Here are the screens required to proove what I'm saying

1- His Thread

2- Our conversation

That's it. I hope he gets punished severely for being a scammer.

1,50 usd. can't belive it.

Theocritus - December 13, 2017, 7:52 am well now that is low wow lol vaxton - December 13, 2017, 7:55 am some people will get hurt and broke if they loose a 1$, not everyone is rich..

some people are selling their blood just to eat.

don't laugh at him and say haha it's just 1.5$, if it mean nothing to you.. it means a lot to him.

I don't care about the 1.5$, as I said I just want this scammer to be punished, He scammed me for 1.5$ which means that he will scam for more, he kept ignoring me for such a low amount, what do you think he will do when he does a 500$ trade ?

this must be a joke.

$1.5

HAHAHA. wow that dude is sad

hogwash55 - December 13, 2017, 11:45 am
I guess a scam is a scam lol

First of all, you gave me 3 'samples' on which you asked which I liked better.
I said the 2nd sample.

There was no indication that this was the final product. and overall I was not happy with it.
At the same time I was speaking with another person, who did the job for me perfectly.
You more or less put the one I said I liked better onto me and from there forced me to pay you for it.
I did not want you to continue to work on it since I had it completed for me.
Sorry for wasting your time and your so desired $1.50.

I wasn't clear enough. I can't belive there are still members who would scam for 1.50

Of course and why you haven't bothered to answer one of my pms ? Waited several days, I'll send you 1.5$ in case you haven't paid the other person.
