Thread: Free 1 year Hosting at domain.com

God of Thunder - December 13, 2017, 3:55 pm

With thanksgiving gone and Christmas coming soon, I just wanted to wish everyone here at HF all the good luck for what you have planned in your life.

I have a couple of .com domain vouchers that give you 1-2 years of free domain services @domain.com

These can be used against any url. .com /.net /.org etc

Please post below explaining why this might be helpful for you. I don't have a lot of these with me, so i will be randomly sending 'em through.

Also, please don't PM me regarding this.

These are coupon codes that use can use with your Visa/Debit card at the time of checkout Thankyou!

I would love to get this I really really need a domain with hosting right now.

TheWolf™ - December 13, 2017, 7:29 pm

This would really be handy!

Cheers, thank you in advance. ?

need one here to waiting hope i got one

BurnedVader - December 14, 2017, 1:02 am

does this work for domains you have already purchased? cause i could definitely use it for my website please

HOMODIN - December 14, 2017, 1:06 am

I actually have a domain at domain.com because they were the only ones that could give me a .it domain. However my budget is extremely limited and would need this for a startup that I'm working on...scandinavian business that would be perfect to launch now when there's almost no competition. However, to get things fired up I need to have something to show, something more than just a pitch, I need proof of concept and that's where the hosting comes in. I can provide you more details but won't do that in public for obvious reasons

Thanks for the great giveaway btw! :)

I'd love to have this. I'm currently learning to build websites from scratch in several programming languages and having a live example would always come in handy.

Does it come with free domain too?

I would love to use it to spread the freedom of cryptocurrencies like bitcoin pretypoopsage - December 14, 2017, 9:04 am

OMG this is neat! I would love to get a free domain and hosting coupon >_<

Baker - December 14, 2017, 10:35 am

I would really like one of these if you could throw it my way please and thank you.

Really need hosting for my site.

free domain

root356545 - December 16, 2017, 4:47 am

I want to Start Forum website that provide Premium accounts for free

DarkSerenity - December 16, 2017, 5:10 am

Hey, I honestly hope I can have this so I can get a domain for my web application which I can show you it is still not fully developed since im working on it alone but I believe it has a potential and this will help me as a step towards my goal.

PS: Thank you for doing this whether it is for me or someone else
