Dr_Demos - December 13, 2017, 7:36 pm

i got scammed for the first time here on hf

i dont know what i do i got scammed from this user Sonata

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3507161>

i dont want my card i will keep clam if i saw her banned i have all proofs thats she scammed me

Sonata - December 13, 2017, 7:44 pm

First of all, I messaged you for a target gift card. You dont even have a sales thread for a walmart gift card. Second of all, your "proof" was a screenshot of a balance. You then began to waste my time talking in broken english for like 15 minutes so I just removed you on skype.

I dont understand the point of making up bullshit because your feelings are hurt that I couldnt understand what you wanted.

I never "used" any codes.

EDIT: Situation has been resolved.

Ben Shapiro - December 13, 2017, 7:53 pm

"You don't even have a sales thread for a Walmart giftcard"

Not gonna lie I lol'd

zFacetious - December 13, 2017, 7:54 pm

There is an absolute lack of any type of proof on this thread, also thread searching here only see $100 Target gift card, no Walmart. Also if your only proof is a screen shot of a $12 balance that is basically useless, Not sure if you are trying to get some fake sympathy or just trying to troll and get someone banned but it isn't appreciated here.

so if u didnt used any codes how come my card balance now is 12$ and i sent you screen shot for card in less than 1 mint showed you its was 50$ you told me its not working then you used somebalance from the card now u tell not working u can come for my pc and see the card balance now is 12 $ but you didnt do you just blocked me on skype
i have broken english but i will tell you that u scammed me coz you think i have few feedback thats why you used my code and told me not working you scammer and Bullshit

I have made hundreds of exchanges on this forum, and, I run multiple sales threads. Would I really ruin my reputation for a $50 Walmart card that isn't even listed for sale? Ub3r costs around that much lmfao.

Does the gift card log show when he supposedly spent the money? If you can prove it was in the timeframe you guys were doing the deal it might actually help you. If not, you are a bad troll and a bad troll is a bad troll.

couple pictures of him talking to a skype not sure if it is the member in questions but it says he will buy code, and than the buyer says code doesn't work.

There are pictures of balances one at $50 and one at $12 but none are time stamped so could be from any time..

The issue still is that you could have inspected element or spent it yourself. You need some time stamps, does Walmart not give a log or statement of usage for the giftcard?

The only thing I'm thrown off by is sonata said "code did not work" instead of the code didn't have $50 on it. Even if OP only had $12 to begin with it still should of taken at least $12 off what you were trying to buy not just completely not work.

Just to chime in, I've done business with Sonata several times. Never charged back, never was sketchy, and never scammed. He has no problems going first in any-case if asked to by a reputable user.

I'm going to call bullshit on this thread considering OP is a new member, OP claims Sonata used $38 of the gift card but could've easily element inspected the source and screenshotted it.

That's also not Sonata's Skype so.. GLOP.

What were you hoping to get from this? I mean no one is going to feel bad enough to give you $40 and an innocent person would never give you money after you blame them falsely. Like wtf lol

Why did you say " the card didn't work" instead of the card didn't have the correct balance? If the card had $12 it should have at least applied towards your total of whatever you were trying to buy, not just completely not worked.

Dr_Demos,

You have to prove that the Hackforum user Sonata PM:ed you on Hackforums with the skype you chose to deal with. If you can prove that he indeed sent you the skype that then talked with you and scammed you then send the screenshot of that PM from hackforums where he mention this skype that did this to you.

If you cannot prove that he gave you this Skype that you say you got scammed by, then it's not enough proof to convince anyone that it's him.

Why? Because this is a common scammer tactic, to impersonate a vouched member of a community or alike and then ask for skype/discord/steam to discuss the matter further.

TopGolf - December 14, 2017, 4:39 am

If deal arose on skype, it's off-site and not covered. The owner/admin has stated this himself, the same issue was with people scamming on discord.

Well thanks for the report, by replying in hf saying that he received the code proves he indeed was the skype user.

Now whether the code was working or not we will never know, in this case it's his word versus yours. However the deal dispute is a permanent mark as it's not proven to be a false report nor a legitimate one. So it'll stick here.

ADD; Please add his uid to the deal dispute database, if you haven't done it already.

synboxin - December 14, 2017, 3:14 pm

If I'm not mistaken he's the guy who made a post about buying pictures to look rich instead of looking broke, but scammed for $50? wtf lmao

Dr_Demos - December 14, 2017, 3:20 pm

its better than nothing

Anyway Thanks for All members who help me out to fix this problem

Lauren Southern - December 14, 2017, 4:24 pm

you settled for $15? I guess that's okay.

Good job Sonata for resolving it instead of just ignoring it

50$... though the card had like 14$ left or something... yet fishy. But okey.

Yeah I'm pretty sure the card had $50 but he was selling it for $30. OP shouldn't settle for anything less than what he's owed. You can 100% tell Sonata was trying to scumbag a new member and thought he was going to walk away with free cash. He even tried to get his friends to come in here and belittle OP and take his side. Shit is honestly a fucking joke. The moment I saw the screen shot saying the card didn't work and he blocked him straight away, I knew he scammed him LOL.

Corwin - December 15, 2017, 2:35 pm

Not very surprising, knew this would happen eventually.

Knew what would happen?

Me resolve a misunderstanding?

Yeah, I always try to make sure the other person in the exchange is satisfied.

I said fuck off of threads you have no business in, especially RESOLVED disputes you cunt. I guess that constitutes as "crying"?

It is pathetic you find every thread I post in just to talk shit.

Get a life you fat fuck. I'm sorry your broke, toxic ass has nothing better to do. Go back to selling your call of duty codes for 18 cents you loser.
