Any regular/upgraded member can apply. This group is not meant to be only for upgraded members.

DOG - December 14, 2017, 3:45 pm

State/Country: Washington State

What your main skills are: Main skill business and trading, not only it is a skill but also I hobby. I also speak fluently French and Russian.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I don't have a particular "favorite" section on hf, I like to post whenever I feel it is right or when I'm interested. But I like the crypto SF.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a business/Finance student who is transferring next quarter to a 4 year university (top 50 of the country). I love dogs as you can see by my profile, I have a Pomeranian at home. I didn't know how to say "hello" in English like 2 years ago. But now I'm an international student in Usa and I learned fast, of course I still make mistakes. I already changed 3 times my car in only 2 years, cause I love changing and trying new cars.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, I never make application or joining group because I don't feel that I'll contribute or I just don't like the group. And I'm 100% ready to help and invest my time in this group.

Anything else you would like to say: I really like the userbar and I hope we can make this group HQ.

Oh and also I love to play video games, GTA, CSGO, LOL, Pubg, Overwatch, Fifa and much more :D

Z?????????????eus - December 14, 2017, 3:46 pm

State/Country: Ohio, United States soon to be California

What your main skills are: Marketing, gaming, website design/coding

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The Lounge, yes I spend most of my time there greeting new members, replying to various threads, and giving opinions on other member's posts. While maintaining professionalism.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: To talk about myself, I am 20 years old and currently a medic in the USAF. The skills I have that can be brought into the group will be marketing, gaming, and some website design with coding. I can bring leadership and maturity to the group, as well as being a motivator.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, very excited to get back into group projects.

Anything else you would like to say: Thank you for reviewing my application ?

Good luck to everyone else that's applied

JillOk - December 14, 2017, 3:47 pm

Oh. I will apply then! :)

State/Country: Norway

What your main skills are: Gaming, Techy Stuff and a bit Programming

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Mostly active in the Freebies and Giveaway section, giving out a lot of courses that expand other people's knowledge, because you know. #EducationShouldBeFree! :)

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a boy from Norway that loves gaming and techy stuff. I'm currently learning programming also, but having a small brake. I love learning about new thing and sharing things that I know.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, for sure!

Anything else you would like to say: I really liked the group name, good luck to everyone else.

KING - December 14, 2017, 4:45 pm

Guys, Don't be afraid to apply. Your application will be taken serious and most likely you will be accepted.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Crypto Currency, I'm extremely active! I'm on that crypto hustle!

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a United States Marines (Most who know me are aware of this.) I've lived in many states, but I currently reside in the state of Indiana. I'm an EMT working towards my paramedic license to better my knowledge of the medical field and help others and the experience will help a lot when I apply and attend medical school.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, if I can help in some way, shape, or form- I will be helping.

Anything else you would like to say: Superior is the name of the company I work for!

God of Thunder - December 14, 2017, 5:07 pm

State/Country: Boston

What your main skills are: I'd say I am pretty proficient when it comes to coding in python and Java. Also, Maths is one of my strong skills.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Lounge and Marketplace. I haven't been very active in posting on HF but whenever I login, these are the two sub-forums which I definitely check out. Lounge because it's always filled with fun stuff, be it stories of achievements for fellow HF members or just trolls.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: 22 years old pursuing my Masters in CS. I have been on HF for almost 3 years and I absolutely love this place. HF has not only given me a platform to sell my skills but also has given me exposure to a variety of topics.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: I would love to. YES.

Anything else you would like to say:

m_rk - December 14, 2017, 5:09 pm

State/Country: US

What your main skills are: Gaming, GFX

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Any of the Gaming and GFX sections.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm currently trying to get into a few colleges for Art specifically for Graphic Design, played in a few tournaments for CSGO and played competitively in most games. I am also trying to get more active in the community so I am interested in high quality groups, and discussing things inside those groups.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: Low cut 2%

Percyi - December 14, 2017, 5:14 pm

State/Country: Ohio, United States

What your main skills are: Cryptocurrency, Writing, and an active member.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The Crypto Speculation section is probably my favorite. Love seeing the ideas and speculation by members and making a choice for myself whether or not I agree with that logic.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm 16 years old, haven't been active too long but I try to remain HQ. Love to trade cryptos and always looking for news to improve on TA.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, I am.

Anything else you would like to say: Nope. Just really love the graphics here, the black and white is really nice, never seen it done before.

Motusora - December 14, 2017, 5:19 pm

N1ghtm4re - December 14, 2017, 6:13 pm

State/Country:

What your main skills are: Art, Illustration. I'm decent in html and css as well, and I know a bit of Python and C++ too.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I'm most active in Anime Adventures, Website Showcase, Groups Sections, and maybe The Lounge.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a pretty chill guy, I like running forums and playing video games. Then watching anime in my spare time. My favorite thing to do is be with my Girlfriend however, but at this time she's very busy so yeah I'm just chilling with my other hobbies right about now.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yeah, definitely. I'd love to help out however I can!

Anything else you would like to say: Nothing really, the Groups Graphics seem rather quality though so I'd expect the same quality from the group. Hopefully I receive an Invitation to Join!

The-Fluffy-Kitty - December 14, 2017, 7:01 pm

Good luck everybody!

Now here's my dank application:

State/Country:
Canada

What your main skills are:
Sales, Marketing, Design, Music/Beat Production, and willing to try almost anything

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?:
My groups' section and I'm quite active. I also dabble and enjoy most of the other sections due to scattered interests.

Tell us a little bit about yourself:
I'm a painter at the moment and I'm looking for work in a city 4 hours away. Aspiring to find work with a marketing agency to grow digital skills professionally. I also have a ton of interests and hobbies.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]:
Yes, of course.

Anything else you would like to say:
Best of luck to all applicants and bang bang skeet skeet ?

DenizZ - December 14, 2017, 7:01 pm

State/Country: The Netherlands

What your main skills are:Lounging & marketing

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Revolution's subforum used to be my favorite section (had ~2000 posts), but sadly all posts are junked now.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm friendly, kind and generous. I have 2 sons and I'm about to get married.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say:

Riyu - December 14, 2017, 7:42 pm

State/Country: US

What your main skills are: Gaming, Marketing

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The Lounge or The Marketplace. I'm active in pretty much all sections but those are my favorite.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I like to post on Hack Forums and occasionally play ps. I'm in College as well. ok.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes.

Anything else you would like to say: No.

Saltpeter - December 14, 2017, 7:48 pm

State/Country: US

What your main skills are: Writing, communication, and grinding for extreme amounts of time.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I think I've spent most of my time here in the Counter Strike section as well as the lounge. I am more active in the Counter Strike section nowadays.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am a student with a bit too much time to kill recently. I also think this group has the ability to do some interesting things, and I'd like the chance to be a part of that.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: Nothing at the moment.

Embargo - December 14, 2017, 8:42 pm

State/Country: Michigan, United States

What your main skills are: Graphic design, marketing, gaming, and game design.

Which section of HF is your favorite? Are you active in that?: My favorites are The Lounge, Rate My Graphic, and Coin Speak. I try to be fairly active when I'm not working.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm 24, I work as a level designer in the game design field. My favorite hobbies include graphic design, PC gaming, and marketing. I also make incredible homemade pizza.

Are you willing to take part in group projects?: Absolutely, I'll remain active as long as the group is still active.

Anything else you would like to say: Thanks for reviewing my application. I look forward to meeting and discussing with new faces.

Lukas - December 14, 2017, 9:47 pm

State/Country: United States

What your main skills are: Literature, graphic design (Behance), photography, and debate

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?:

I wouldn't necessarily say that the sections that possess the majority of my posts are my favorite. One of my preferred sections is by far SRPP, yet due to the constant immaturity and lack of openmindedness, I often avoid placing my comments there. The Rate My Graphic section is a complete different story. I'm an avid designer, yet as the days go by, Hack Forums continuously loses designs, causing that section to lack in activity, providing no place for me to post, aside from threads that I've already submitted feedback on.

Tell us a little bit about yourself:

I'm an 18-year-old college student currently studying political science and English. I plan on furthering my education in hopes of becoming a lawyer, following a relative's footsteps. During my free time, I enjoy web designing / developing, writing short stories or completing assignments for clients, and photography.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]:
Yes

Anything else you would like to say:
Not much; however, I am grateful for this opportunity, so thank you.

SIM-2223238 - December 14, 2017, 10:14 pm

State/Country: Netherlands

What your main skills are: Some webdevelopment, stress-testing and g-g-games

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?:The Lounge and the marketplace probably (and some usergroup sections)

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I've been here for a long time and constantly learning from other members.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: Not really.

Ben Shapiro - December 14, 2017, 10:28 pm

State/Country: Alabama

What your main skills are: I have a nose for drop shipping and shopify related matters. I have a crazy entrepreneurial spirit and consistently come up with business ideas that I try to manifest. I'd say other various skills would be public speaking, debate, biology (my major) and taking care of Scottish Fold cats.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I split my time between the crypto currency sections and the politics/religion section, both of which i find very interesting in their own respects.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a reddit transplant who has taken to the community and the layout, on top of that I am a bio major who aspires to become an MD. I spend a lot of time as a scribe for doctors at my local hospital and when I'm not there I'm taking my care of my cancer surviving dog, tailless cat, and Scottish fold cat.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes! I'm not 100% what that would entail but hey, I'm open for anything.

Anything else you would like to say: I'm hoping this group will help allow me to meet new people with differing perspectives on life and find new opportunities and pathways on my journey into making some money online!

GetW - December 14, 2017, 11:23 pm

State/Country: Finland

What your main skills are: Gaming, Selling, Working on Linux and Photoshop

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Hmm, Lounge or some section on Marketplace.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: 17 Yo studying Information and communications technology, on second year. I have been looking for a group on HF for a while. Now I think I found one that I would like. Also I am working at the moment for a bigger project.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: That userbar is my dream one also.

SIM-2273342 - December 14, 2017, 11:50 pm

State/Country: East Coast, United States

What your main skills are: I would argue that my main skills fall under communication, marketing, sales experience, cypto investing, and the primary fields of education.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: My favorite section on HF would likely be that of SRPP as it generally consists of intellectual discussion and debate regarding current events and history alike.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am currently a sophomore in college pursuing a double major in Accounting and Economics. On the side I tend to invest the majority of my time in cryptocurrency investing/speculation as well as running my assignment service.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, I would enjoy that.

Anything else you would like to say: PM me with any questions or concerns.

Rolex Gold - December 15, 2017, 1:52 am

State/Country: FL, USA

What your main skills are: Flipping, investments, educational services

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Secondary sellers market. Yes I am active as I constantly acquire new items to sell in that particular section.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: Unlike a lot of members, I haven't been part of the site for many years. I just recently joined 6 months ago and since then I've changed a lot as a person. I'm much more financially independent and I've seen a whole new side of the internet I never knew about. Aside from my presence on hf and other forums, I love to go out with friends and travel a lot. My dream is to travel the world and be able to experience all the different cultures.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: I really would like to be a part of the group and get to know all the members. Unfortunately the past groups I've been in have all been bought out and the new owners kicked all the old members. I'm hoping to find a group to establish my presence and meet like minded individuals.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The Lounge and Marketplace. I'm also a lurker in the Crypto Currency section.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I play football (soccer) in a high division. I'm going to study International Business Management in a few months. Business is my passion and I would like to own a successful business later.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, why not?

Anything else you would like to say: Hard work pays off iNuke - December 15, 2017, 4:26 am

iNuke's Superior Application

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to apply to Superior.

State/Country: France

What your main skills are: I am skilled in some IT stuff, C/C++ development and I enjoy very much the Blockchain technology.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Right now my favourite section is the Crypto Currencies one. I am starting to be a lot more active in it, yes. And I'm enjoying it very much.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a 20 y/o French kid. I've been on HF for like 5 years, which helped me improve my English a lot. I love high fashion, rap music and IT. My favourite movie is probably Interstellar. About my HF activity, I miss being in groups and contributing to groups' activities. I used to be in Infamous, 143 (which were my favourite groups) and Legacy/Instinct back in the days. Being in a group boosts me and pushes me to do more, which is why I love groups, and I'd like to start again investing myself in one or two.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: A big YES. And I mean it.

Anything else you would like to say: Again, thank you for giving me the opportunity to apply. I hope you like my application. It would be an honor to be invited to Superior, as I believe I could bring positive vibes to it, and I also believe that Superior itself could bring some positive vibes as well to me. Sorry if you spot any English mistakes, I'm trying my best. Thank you for reading ?

Play Boy - December 15, 2017, 4:32 am

State/Country:
United States of America.

What your main skills are:

Penetration Testing (Have a B.S. in cyber security), Computer repair (Have an A.S. in sys admin and repair), Networking (Knowledge but not a preferred topic, mainly an add-on from school/work), Web and App programming (Same as networking), and Gaming (PC).

Which section of HF is your favorite? Are you active in that?

The beginner and advanced hacking section. I'm fairly active though I don't post often as I observe the content more than I spout bullshit or repeat information that's already been said.

Tell us a little bit about yourself:

My real age isn't the age I put on hackforums. I'm old enough to drink alcohol which is probably all I'll say on the matter. I have a college degree in cyber security and an interest in all things tech. I consider myself a white hat hacker. I am knowledgeable in my field but have so much more to learn. I'm humble enough to say that there are others here who are better at this cat and mouse game than I am. I game in my off-time playing every genre you can think of with a preference on anything strategy/moba related. I take my security pretty seriously so you'll have to forgive me if I don't disclose too much personal information about myself.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]:

Sure. Main reason I'm interested in joining this group would be to pick up some new tricks and show off a few of my own within a group environment. Just no black hat group projects, ya dig?

Anything else you would like to say:

I've been a member of hack forums for a very long time with a very low post count which may seem like I'm inactive but I simply lurk around searching for interesting threads. I absorb the knowledge and move on without making a post. I try not to post whore too often but I suppose that does backfire doesn't it? The group insignia and name sound pretty dope and have caught my eye. Hopefully you'll give me a shot but no harm done if I don't meet your requirements.

Thanks for reading my application.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Private Investigation.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'd rather do this in private.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: No.

Sneakybae - December 15, 2017, 1:17 pm

Location: Europe

What your main skills are: - Management & Business - Design & Form - Pentesting & Hacking
- Basic Coding

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that: Honestly, right now it's the ewhoring section and yes I am active. When I get presented something new to learn I'm very focused on that section rather than derailing. I also hope no one will judge that because I believe there's an art in everything.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: Mature and calm, new and active (currently sitting at 11 posts and 1 thread per day). I like to keep things short and having a goal in mind. I appreciate how you're very open with applicants on here, which leads me to believe this is going to be a serious and successful group on HF.

Are you willing to take part in group projects: Of course! That's the sole reason to why I've applied. I'd like to be part of something, put my skills to use for the reason of accomplishment. Tell me my position!

Anything else you would like to say: Not right now but I'll be sure to speak up whenever some ideas or discussions comes up.

Hoodie+ - December 15, 2017, 2:04 pm

State/Country Croatia

What your main skills are I have general IT knowledge. Mostly web design, programming, computer security and networking.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that? I try to check "C/C++/Obj-C Programming", Advanced Hacking and Beginner Hacking sections on daily basis.

Tell us a little bit about yourself I've been using computers since my childhood, it all started with playing games. I used to play League of Legends sometimes even up to 10 hours a day, after a while it got boring. I've started to take interest in other subjects such as web design, programming and then I found about hacking, I found the idea of hacking so fascinating that I've started to read about it online, unfortunately it wasn't easy to become a hacker (Or at least a good one). The idea of becoming a hacker still fascinates me but I've moved to computer security and I plan to study computer science and possibly have a career in it.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No] Yes

Name: Stashy/Mercury

Age: 20 years old

Time Zone: (UTC-05:00) Eastern Time (US & Canada)

What are some skills that you have (Explain in depth with examples):

The skills I've acquired over the years of computing are basic programming, some networking fundamentals, community management, and malware prevention/removal. My first programming language was Java.

It's such an amazing language and you're able to interpret code by just looking at it. I was interested in Java because I was into runescape private servers for over a year and still is very much part of my interests.

I learned a lot by running a server called "Acrylicx" which had 30-70 players daily at it's peak.

Managing the community and staff team was also my responsibility. You can check out the advertisement thread here. It was a great run, and was fully beneficial knowledge wise.

Most of the income went towards to advertising. I got into Python also.

I've gotten into networking recently and stopped. You can check out my two of my networking threads here and I recommend this thread.

When I was a black hat, I obviously played with the tools it provided to be a black hat, then of course I infected myself.

So I wanted to disable the keylogger, as the keylogger I had used didn't have a control panel. I started doing research and playing around with my computer. Finally I came to a conclusion. I thought to myself, when a program starts it needs to be initiated by the computer itself. Start up processes. "msconfig", and found the process. It all starts there. I'm desperately wanting to learn how to remove malware by using analyzer tools, etc.

Why do you feel you should be accepted into Superior?:

I think I should be accepted into the family of the Superior's because I feel like I've contributed a lot(which isn't noticed), but I also want to learn more.

More about anything. Knowledge leads to computing, and computing leads to power/control.

In one to three paragraphs, tell us a little bit about yourself or something memorable that happened in your life, what makes you who you are and who are you: I'm interested in becoming a software engineer, or an IT professional. I'm in the engineering magnet academy so I can go into renown college/university and attend their school of engineering.

I view myself as a giving person. My self esteem is determined by others. Not of what they say, but what I do that makes them internally happy. I love seeing people happy. But what I hate. I hate when I can't satisfy them. When I can't, I'll keep trying. I won't give up. If it doesn't work, then I say sorry to them and move on.

That's who I am.

I have worked for a charity for the past year and a bit, I work am in charge of pc hardware maintenance, server maintenance, website maintenance & building and to implicate new software and help improve the processes. I also do some graphics design. I decided to work for a charity because I like to give back to the community. During my time at secondary school I used to mentor younger students & give them advice on any issues that they were having at school or at home.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]:

I will try as best as possible, I work quite a lot and commute from home to work is quite long but i would be more than happy to if i have spare time

Anything else you would like to say:

Thank you for considering my application ^_^

Anything else you would like to say: I like memes.

Sajuuk - December 23, 2017, 2:42 pm

State/Country: United States

What your main skills are: Programming

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The only section I really visit nowadays is the C++ section. I make a few posts here and there but am not on this board every single day like I used to be.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I started scripting when I was eight or nine years old, everything I made at that time was strictly Batch or VBScript based. I began delving into C and C++ in 2013 and since then have used those two languages for basically everything I make program-wise.

Are you willing to take part in group projects?: Sure, why not.

Anything else you would like to say: There are a few grammar errors here and there on the OP. I don't have room to judge because everyone makes mistakes but still.

Dean Winchester? - December 23, 2017, 3:00 pm

What your main skills are:

Video editing & Crypto's

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?:

My favorite section of HF is definitely the Crypto section. I've made a lot of money in a short period of time with my investments, and I am now trying to help other members with the knowledge I reside.

Tell us a little bit about yourself:

My name is Josh, I am 18 years old and currently studying marketing and entrepreneurship. I am currently working as a freelance editor and have been doing it for almost 5 months now. I love the liberty of being able to choose my own working hours and which projects I'd like to continue working on. In my spare time, I like to invest in cryptocurrencies and stocks to make an extra passive income. So far I have been doing great, and my tips have not only helped myself, but also a bunch of other HF members & real life friends. When I am not sitting at my computer, I go to the gym 3-4 times a week to improve my body and maintain my health.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]:

Yes, I'd love to contribute to group projects. I'm fairly experienced in marketing as I have been studying it for 3 years now, plus I have a certification from Google to show that I am certified in Digital marketing.

Anything else you would like to say:

I love the userbar and idea of this group and I definitely think I can contribute to this group and make some great projects with you guys which will benefit us all in the end.

What your main skills are: Gaming, GFX

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: Any of the Gaming and GFX sections.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm currently trying to get into a few colleges for Art specifically for Graphic Design, played in a few tournaments for CSGO and played competitively in most games. I am also trying to get more active in the community so I am interested in high quality groups, and discussing things inside those groups.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say:

ZerFallen - December 25, 2017, 4:45 pm

State/Country: USA.

What your main skills are: Debating, Psychology, English, and Gaming.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I really enjoy the Science, Religion, Philosophy, and Politics section, but it has become really slow as of late. Right now I usually stick to the lounge and other groups I'm a part of.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a cynical and pessimistic man who likes to assume the worst and be pleasantly surprised when it doesn't occur. In my opinion, that's the best form of "optimism" there is. Other than that, I like to play games, read, write, and debate.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, if I can help I would be more than glad to.

Anything else you would like to say: I can't think of anything else. ?

Trappy - December 26, 2017, 2:46 am

State/Country: I am from California.

What your main skills are: I am skilled in a variety of different disciplines. Overlooking them all I believe I am most prominent in business activities. Another skill I possess is crypto currencies, I've been on the scene since the first boom in April and I'm a big believer and advocate for them.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: My favorite section on Hackforums is the Crypto Currency subforum, along with the groups subforum. I enjoy the Crypto forum because I enjoy speculating with like minded people, and I enjoy the groups forum because I enjoy making new friends.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am sixteen years old, I've been a member of Hackforums for a bit over a year and I can credit HF to a lot of my knowledge. I've been in several groups before, the most memorable being revolution, which aided me to post over 1000 times in a single day. I am a highly social individual and greatly enjoy making new friends and conversing with like-minded individuals.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: I am willing to take part in group projects, I have taken part in group projects for numerous groups before.

Anything else you would like to say: I'm really looking forward to making friendships within your group, making memories, and learning more.

TheWolf™ - December 26, 2017, 8:15 am

State/Country: Canada

What your main skills are: I am the type of person that doesn't believe that I have many skills, as I only know how to do such skill, I am not a pro at it. These include RAT, Hosting, Marketing, and also some in real life skills such as; certified in CPR, First-aid and overall team player.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I am all over the HF community. I love to take place in The Lounge as often as I can, but spending time there can be a real time consumer. I am also relatively active on the Remote Administration Tools and the Marketplace.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am a young man who is very interested in online marketing and e-commerce. I've recently opened up a Shopify store and I am looking for some revenue from that. I do have a job, but why should I depend on that? There's a different type of joy in receiving money via pay stub and PayPal. I am very money motivated, and I love to share my knowledge with other people, I wouldn't have been able to learn it without someone's help, so I love to give back to the community. Hopefully, I can get a successful business if not at least break even.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes, I love being part of a team/group dynamic. There's just something about the camaraderie that I adore.

Anything else you would like to say: I wish the best of luck to all the applicants. Cheers, ?

Undefined - December 27, 2017, 2:38 am

State/Country: Would rather not say publicly. EU, CET time zone.

What your main skills are: I'm particularly interested in CS, machine learning, and programming in general. I am studying CS at the moment so that is really my main game. However, I have quite a lot of experience in other fields as well. I've done a lot of eCommerce in particular and, not to mention, the advertising, copywriting, product management, and web design that comes with running an eCommerce store. I have done a lot of crypto investing (way before the whole trading boom up to now) and have a good understanding of their infrastructure (keyword is good - I am not an expert).

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: My favorite section would probably be the crypto section as a whole. A lot of great people in there with incredible knowledge of the field. I used to be quite active there. I have just come back to HF and am getting more active in all the sections I liked before my hiatus.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I enjoy reading non-fiction, watching movies (comedies, action movies, mystery movies, and such), smoking weed (I can roll a fat ass blunt ?) and doing psychedelics (which I have a lot of experience in). Aside from those interests I have a HUGE amount of passion for anything technology related and am always learning new things so I have a lot of general knowledge. Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Of course. I was looking forward the MOST to group projects. Anything that has to do with joint effort to create something big is my thing.

Anything else you would like to say: Further typing not needed.

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: The Lounge yes :)

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I'm a native of Majorca, Spain, and I entered the Franciscan Order many years ago. In May of 2009 I went to Mexico with forty-eight other Franciscans to join the Franciscan missionary college of San Fernando in Mexico City. On volunteering for the Indian missions, I was sent to California in October that same year. I sailed from San Blas, Jalisco, with ten friars in January and reached Monterey in May. Initially assigned to Mission San Diego, I was transferred to Mission San Carlos Borromeo de Carmelo, where I continued mission work until August of 2012. I was then directed to found Mission San Fernando. I remained there as the director successfully harboring love and affection in a group of about 70 men, who went into the world spreading joy and delivering presents throughout California's central coast. In January of last year I quit being a friar and entered the NFL draft, where I was taken by the Browns for their practice squad and then was subsequently cut. I now live in Monterey, California, and I surf often.

GameFreak - January 15, 2018, 1:00 pm

State/Country: US WEST

What your main skills are: Swift, advertising, social media manipulation, python, talking to people, having conversations with members about random stuff

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?:Favorite? Probably Lounge and the marketplace. I think I am fairly active, with post quality and frequency increasing steadily.

Tell us a little bit about yourself: I am an adult who loves working with others and talking about stuff. I don't believe ideas are worth being kept secret and can entertain conversation on nearly any subject.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes

Anything else you would like to say: Not much, hopefully you will still consider this, even though it is 5 days since apps have closed. I have only briefly been a part of groups, but have never applied as well. Hopefully this would be a good experience for me and your community. Thank you!

Flu0z - January 15, 2018, 4:16 pm

State/Country: United Kingdom

What your main skills are: Little bit of C#/C++/Java/VB/PAWN, Little bit of web development, Networking, Malware Removal, Social Engineering

Which section of HF is your favourite? Are you active in that?: I don't have a favorite section, I used to be active in helping people on beginner hacking, I like to browse a lot of the forums, but I only contribute something if it's worth contributing

Tell us a little bit about yourself: So I'm a 21 year old self employed guy from the UK. I enjoyed playing games and grew up playing MOHAAS, COD 2, COD 4, RS As of which all helped become quite good at FPS In general and I was quiet involved in the Cod 4 competitive scene. Due to the fact that I loved games I started making bank from RS when i was around 16, I'd say 400-500$ a week from stuff I've learnt, Mainly SEing and Ratting. 5 years on i'm more of a "greyhat" just trying to expand my own knowledge and everyone elses.

I started my own business in 2017, as of which I have left my full time job as a Software Engineer and started Digibit and I'm now self employed.

Because of this, I spend most of my free time learning programming languages, and skills that will help benefit my IT Portfolio and skill set.

My HF career is quite small and not too long, but I think I've fit in to the community quite well thus far.

Are you willing to take part in group projects? [Yes/No]: Yes Definitely

Anything else you would like to say: I'm not sure on what to write up on an application, I've met a few users in this group that I've got on well with, and I think I could really fit in here and contribute what I can to the group.

GloryToBe - January 15, 2018, 4:30 pm

I don't know why recruitment is still open when the thread says that recruitment is open when it's already past the date on the top of the thread.
