Thread: The Death of AIM Dec 15, 2017

Ninja - December 15, 2017, 9:34 am

Today, AIM has officially ended after 20 long years. It's crazy that 2017 was the end of many things. Clubpenguin back in March and now AIM today. I guess it's time for new projects to take over in the future. How long have you had your AIM? When did you stop using it?

Levi - December 15, 2017, 9:42 am

Sad to see AIM go. Used AIM for like 11 years, and stopped using it when the news broke that they were shutting down.

M?xim - December 15, 2017, 9:44 am

Meh. It ended a while ago. Just officially now. Already moved on.

Armada - December 15, 2017, 9:51 am

AIM was actually a thing?

LOL

I god honestly never used the thing in my life.

javinzplayer - December 15, 2017, 9:54 am

I used AIM back then in the dial up days. I will never forget the experience. Thanks AIM!

Biker BoyZ - December 15, 2017, 10:05 am

AIM was not the shit :) MSN was :)

Microsoft Agent #3180 - December 15, 2017, 1:55 pm

I jacked my Aim Saturn in 2011 and haven't used it since 2014

Reputation - December 15, 2017, 2:18 pm

I was absolutely shocked when MSN shut down. That was like my childhood.

AIM I never really used but I know a lot of people had it, I just never got into it.

I couldn't believe Clubpenguin died either... Like wtf. That was my first ever online game I played jde1045 - December 15, 2017, 2:19 pm

Man, I haven't used AIM in ages. Had a lot of good memories on it

Hustla - December 15, 2017, 2:41 pm

AIM was the shit ten years ago, good old times. You know what they say.. everything comes to end one day.

Hoodie+ - December 15, 2017, 2:42 pm

Don't think about it, forget it.

It's less painful like this.

TeamXWitness - December 17, 2017, 2:32 pm

I used AIM back during the Call of Duty modding days on the 360

I can relate to this.

Ninja - March 17, 2018, 11:51 am

Who else had an AIM and wants to share their experience with it throughout the previous years?

Riot - March 17, 2018, 11:52 am

I used AIM back in middle school, was all the buzz. Then MSN slowly took over. Ahh, the days.

wit - March 17, 2018, 11:53 am still cant believe club penguin is gone

Never played it so I'm not that bothered honestly.

Lukas - March 17, 2018, 12:19 pm

I don't think I used AIM. I was always a Windows Live Messenger guy.

AIM seemed more like a thing that school/irl friends used. I joined just as it died out and switched to MSN where I talked to online friends rather than IRL. I was out of IRL friends by that time anyhow. feelsbadman

BrotherTooTurnt - March 17, 2018, 12:24 pm

I miss aim and that OG app. It was the first instagram trendy app that all the kids used after school.

Crystallize. - March 17, 2018, 12:41 pm

I never used in my life AIM and never knew it was popular.

Damn, that means your AIM would be an adult this year lol. That's a long time.

JoshAllen - March 17, 2018, 2:18 pm

All my OG Aims are gone!!!!

JK, only had one.

It is sad because a lot of the OG scene used it.

?BIG Punisher™ - March 17, 2018, 2:27 pm

Rest in peace AIM, you were good!

Me either, never used it as a kid.

Mr Meeseeks - March 17, 2018, 8:27 pm

I have lots of memories of AIM, sad to see it go.

Ninja - March 22, 2018, 9:01 am

Anyone else had an AIM or a favorite site or game that doesn't exist anymore?

Jimmie - March 22, 2018, 9:04 am

AIM died long before this I used to flip OG accounts back in 2012/13 and it was hardly used them.

Yeah I never got into the OG scene with AIM though.

Chief Turbo - March 22, 2018, 9:22 am

I never used AIM... lol

I remember MSN tho

I remember MSN tho

I used to use msn a lot back in probably 2009 and even yahoo messenger years ago fun times.

spradebassen - March 22, 2018, 12:13 pm

No one gives a shit about AIM hollowbat - March 22, 2018, 1:03 pm

AIM was dead way before it was "officially" dead lol, things like skype, discord broke it pretty fast

GdkDon - March 22, 2018, 1:11 pm

I'm going to miss AIM :(specially all the OG aims I jacked.

hittingp - March 22, 2018, 1:48 pm

I had one at some point, don't think I ever really used it though. Its sad to see go though since it was actually fairly pioneering at the time.
