Amt: $6

Thread <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5740904>

My Spotify was premium for about 24 hours, I contacted tefco to replace (as per his TOS) 3 separate times now without any action taken.

I will post screenshots of the PMs in question, but he did not use the REPLY button so some of them are out of order. According to my tracking, he has read all of my PMs regarding my service no longer being premium.

I would like a refund, or a replacement of service please.

Looks like a a valid dispute, hope you get what you want.

I thought he straight up scammed you for $6 and logged off or something, I was about to say...

Anyway, good luck.

If you get refunded i'll give you lifetime for $10

This isn't at all about a refund, it's $6 bucks.

This is about sellers offering bullshit like "lifetime warranty" and then never delivering.

FamousHater just hooked me up out of the kindness of his heart and he had nothing to do with the original deal. THANK YOU!

EDIT: as of Dec 21st this dispute has been resolved.
