Thread: My own apartment is being built!

Captain P. - December 16, 2017, 7:54 am

Yesterday I signed a contract which concludes that I will have my own apartment in mid 2018.

It's currently being built hence why I won't move in directly.

You're not getting an apartment built. You have a contract to rent an apartment that's being built by someone else.

Still pretty nice. Enjoy it.

DoctorO - December 18, 2017, 9:25 am

Congratulations, that's a pretty big accomplishment

My apartment has been delayed to 2019 and I'm probably gonna back out of negotiations.

Makoro777 - January 19, 2018, 4:23 am

WoW! great news man. Success is a bliss.

Kenjataimu - January 19, 2018, 4:26 am

I first understood it as you were having your own apartment complex built and were going to rent it out to people xD

But congrats either way dude.

.Astro - January 19, 2018, 10:58 pm

That's pretty great, congrats man!

Does it happen to come furnished and such? Full kitchen, how many rooms, etc? Tbh I just wanna compare it to the price of mine as well as handful of other apartment complexes near me. Although yours isn't in USD, I just feel like it'd be interesting compare living expenses.

I cancelled it because it was delayed. Not furnished, but with kitchen. Two rooms.

Truly - January 22, 2018, 8:45 am

Congrats bro, I'm trying to get my own place soon as well.
