Thread: Goodbye... for now

funtela - December 17, 2017, 3:58 pm

Hey guys :) Hope everyone is enjoying the holidays!

Things in my life haven't been going as well as I'd want them to. And it's just getting more difficult now during the holidays. Good news is that I finally found out what was causing everything, and now I'm dedicated to fixing everything, including myself.

I know that I owe some people money. I'm aware of the scam reports. My PayPal has been going through shit this week which has affected everything. Let's just that my negative balance is more than any positive balance I've ever had. If I owe you money, add me on Skype. I'm usually on Discord but I believe there's a new rule regarding that. Please don't harass me about it. I'll do my best. But you have my word that you will receive your money.

Anyways, I wanted to open this thread before I go on my 3 month vacation ban.

Happy Holidays babes <3

I'll be self banning myself in a few hours.

Hopefully what you are saying is true, but lets be totally honest here, majority of the time when this scenario plays out it never ends well.

I really doubt you are pulling a classic scam then vacation ban since you made a thread addressing it but seriously that's kinda mad sketchy...
Best of luck with your issues and solving them but don't forget to pay back what you owe :P

Hustla - December 17, 2017, 6:20 pm

Vouch for Funtella.

Even though he's a fuck-bit sometimes, you WILL get your funds if he does owe you.
Sad to see you go, but goodluck bro. You'll be alright!

B FOR BADASS - December 17, 2017, 6:41 pm

I think that you will be a changed person when you return in 2018. You are a HQ member but lately were a little different in your approach here..

Was wondering why the user didnt message me back on discord since buying lifetime of his instagram bot and it not working on my pc. User seemed friendly and not like something he would do. Will give the benefit of the doubt, but I would still like it on record that I have also attempted to contact the user regarding my program not working since the 1st day I bought it up until a month later (now) where I have received a total of 1 message back . I understand you are going through things and as I said when I first spoke to you, a man is as good as his word and your word I shall trust. Take a vaca, get your mind right, and get me my money back. Much love homie and have a good one.
