Thread: Can't access the website with adblocker on?

Fear - December 19, 2017, 10:07 pm

This is what I see when I have ublock on Anyone else have this problem?

FamousHater - December 19, 2017, 10:08 pm

then turn it off?

why would u need adblocker on hf?

Ublock sounds like a sun lotion made of sperm. Uninstall it and get ABP.

Yeah. The Ads on HF aren't that bad.

And if you don't like them. Just upgrade.

Something tells me this thread is a pretty bad idea.

Good to see it's not just me. I think Omni is trying to piss off people who use Adblock.

Deal with the ads, Upgrade or fuck off :)

Support the site.

Why in earth would a mentally healthy person use ABP over µBlock?

That's like saying someone should use Chrome over Firefox.

In case you didn't know how Adblock works, it blocks ads on every site. I have to whitelist it to remove it. it's not like I went "oh, nope no support for HF, block those ads" and ill take your advice and upgrade I guess since you are the supreme lord of everything.

I can upgrade you for free.

PerfectStorm - December 19, 2017, 10:30 pm

Really? turn adblocker off. Mission complete./

Someone is already upgrading me to 3p1c, but thank you, genuinely.

Blazin - December 19, 2017, 10:31 pm

You can just turn it off and you won't get that blank screen at all anymore. Solved. Ad's won't hurt you. Become friends with them.

The problem is the invasive ads that track what you do. Or the pop ups, or the huge giant ads you see on sited like the Washington post.

You have been tracked your whole life since Birth. I see your point, you can disable the addon for HF only I believe? There is a option for that.

Yeah, I whitelisted it already.

I have it always on and it has always been working on HF but not anymore I see it's not a problem because HF doesn't have that many ads

flavoral - December 19, 2017, 11:29 pm

The forum don't have pop-up ads nor huge spam ads, so i don't see a reason for using adb on the forum tbh

Elitas - December 20, 2017, 2:31 am

Last time I remember, it didn't block ads for me as they were just images.

TheWolf™ - December 20, 2017, 2:39 am

When I wasn't upgraded I had adblocker and the site worked fine for me, don't know if that changed or not.

Cheers, ?

That's not nice. That's how income is made to keep HF running smooth. ? lol

I think he means the same thing as I do.

Had adblock, but ads still showed.

That is not solely how income is made on Hack Forums, it only accounts for a small amount, which is important, but doesn't "keep HF running smooth" IMO.

No I know it wasn't the only income HF makes it was a joke lol. I use Adblock myself.

sry im just racist nvm

BreadMaker - December 20, 2017, 2:51 am

To be honest, This sites Ad's aren't even bad compared to others

Vitani - December 20, 2017, 3:31 am

Simply use UBlock instead of adblock or adblock+ and you'll be fine. I made the switch a while ago and it's the perfect plugin for blocking adds.

I second, Ublock is better

I think people nowadays are really brushing off trackers and how much power they have over your browsing experience. I wouldn't want ads tracking my entire online and even irl presence either. It's a valid concern to have.

UBlock Origin is factually the best one of them all :), Unless we're counting NoScript, but that can be an hassle to use for most people.
