Report him to the police, if you try to beat him up that has a high chance of ending badly.

CyberStrike - December 20, 2017, 9:57 am

I wouldn't piss on that POS if he was on fire, animal abusers are one step above pedo's.

Alert the authorities! Do NOT act by yourself, Don't be a hero.

KingGoose - December 20, 2017, 10:31 am

Call the fucking cops immediately, these guys are probably on the same steroids they give their dogs.

Unless you have the ability to secretly film it... idk tho

BrotherTooTurnt - December 20, 2017, 10:46 am

Call 1-800- CALLFBI and they will investigate.

ZerFallen - December 20, 2017, 11:13 am

Report him to the police and animal control. They will have the dogs removed and the guy arrested.

Killy - December 20, 2017, 11:18 am

Hustla - December 20, 2017, 12:00 pm

Don't get involved with him. If you want to take action then report it and make sure the report is anonymous.

Report him to the police, and you should probably remove his name because that may be considered doxxing.
