$900 it's look suspicious, care buy buying this
You can be scammed !

Kind Regards,
Meedman

I just lost a few brain cells from reading this.
My brain is about to implode.

Bro set your Onion(security slider to high), and on NoScript Button, Go to Embeddings, and check every Box except FRAMES for the list of things to block.

GI mate.

TheWolf™ - December 21, 2017, 2:12 pm

For a RAT that was once $45 and then someone who probably cracked it is selling it for $900, Cheers, ?

Demya - December 21, 2017, 4:41 pm

Wow, why the hell would anybody pay that much is beyond me. Either a serious noob or just a scammer testing the market.

ganstephanos - December 21, 2017, 4:56 pm

Its not KFCWatermelon, he disappeared.

- His RAT isnt worth $900
- Dark net and .NET malware, kek
- Its either another one of those scam sites or someone reselling cracked versions digibomber - December 22, 2017, 2:09 am

Everybody here complaining about the price.
Nobody noticed it says 'source code included'
Probably a scam anyway.

Selfpwned - December 22, 2017, 4:25 am

And now? Why do you open the thread?

PerfectStorm - December 22, 2017, 4:27 am

Looks more like a troll, or borderline idiot.

DelziumTheProudWhale_temp - December 22, 2017, 4:38 am

iis 8.5 remote code execution for 300$ lmao thats a scam

Armada - December 22, 2017, 7:01 am

Well why in the fuck am I selling here if I can cop $900 a piece for software using .onion? ?

- Oh wait, its because I sell legitimate uncracked software. ???

@OP.

If you are willing to pay or even post about a very WELL over inflated price to a piece of cracked, dead software. Well what can I say. There is an old saying that comes true even to this day.

"A fool and their money will soon part ways"
