Thread: [\[EU\] WoW Sniping/Flipping Adventures](#)

Manalishi - December 21, 2017, 10:02 am

Hi and welcome to my thread, I do a lot of sniping on the Auction House, whenever people make a mistake or forget to add a zero at the end. I'm there to snipe it. Will be updating this thread whenever I snipe something decent I will not bother with posting all my sniping adventures but instead post the noticeable flips.

All the sniping and flipping is done with two of my bankertoons "Imbank" and "Heatbank".

Oh yea thats a really rare sword, it could no longer be dropped since the cataclysm revamp. The mobs that drops the sword are gone from the game.

Great flip!

I have always like flipping but my personal preference is probably taking over a part of the auction house. This is how i made over 460k+ in one day :D

My personal favorite is farming transmogs :P I like to go out and farm, I usually try to spend as little time on the AH as possible. But every now and then I try to do a bit of sniping.

Let us all just have a silent moment for all of those who had a Gutrender before the new patch.

just joined a new server where I see a lot more of sniping opportunities compared to my old realm, so expect more updates.

Been a bit inactive over the past week, but gonna take a big look at the AH this weekend!

Ginn-su finally sold after 3 weeks! Was suspecting a sale within this week. Been seeing some collectors buying rare pattern's and someone bought a top high society hat yesterday aswell.
