Thread: another one against Rysko uid = 3001152

yeah yeah basically the same thing as the last two.

images and bullshit idk

<https://imgur.com/a/f489a>

in short:[li]

[*]rysko selling whitehat semiauto thatll allegedly make me 150-250 a day for no investment.

[*]talk to rysko on skype and confirm deal

[*]he confirms once more that first day should earn me 100$ and scale after that (incl screenshot so you know im not fuckin)

[*]tell me setup will be the next day bc hes got an exam and wants to study, thats cool i have exams too i understand it can be fucked sometimes.

[*]next day nothing, day after he says tomorrow again, people in discord getting a little rowdy but im keeping my cool, hope still in my heart

[*]no setup, sends blackhat ewhore/scamming (not delivering anything) method

[*]apparently others got a shopify method too, i didnt get none of that but w/e, not a huge deal.

[*]people in discord now rly rowdy, im still kinda chill, not saying too much, just waiting.

[*]rysko also posts signals, so investment is needed. apparently the methods he sent are to get an initial investment.

[/li]

altogether, this is not what i paid for. this is blackhat and not autopilot at all and requires investment . I mean, once you're invested i guess its autopilot only changing what coins you're holding every day, but still. also never got any kind of teamviewer setup or anything.

so basically, i didnt get what i paid for.

however, ryskos signals have been overall pretty good. hes been making money off them, im seeing the rises, and although im still trusting my own instincts, i dont want to say hes wrong about anything. he can throw up proof that they are working for him. so for that reason, im ready to settle on certain terms:

a full refund of the VALUE of the funds i sent. i sent 0.542683737208169 ETH. this was worth a bit over 200$ on dec. 8th. ill settle with receiving the same USD value of the funds, because eth did rise considerably. if i get 0.25 eth back, im still happy because im not really losing anything. and he still gets to keep roughly 0.25 too. i dont see why this cant be honored.

also, if it's possible i wouldnt mind still working on the project and trading together because we can still pretty easily make bank. my earnings are working, his too. put them together and you make twice as much. or something idk. basically im not rly mad or anything. i made most of my initial transaction back from my own investments so yeah.

I am sure there will be one or 2 more that will come out of the woodwork against him. We all have been patient enough with him

Saltpeter - December 21, 2017, 7:32 pm

He isn't even replying to these anymore. Seems like he has given up.

Typical ebook scammer moves to ignore DDs

Copywriter - December 22, 2017, 8:16 pm

Sorry for the loss, did you see the DDs before though?

Also link his profile in the OP.

[SPOILER]

Theocritus - December 23, 2017, 2:52 am

I dont see why people would do this sort of basically selling a product that it not at all what was promised..

Uh basic explanation - they're desperate/broke?

HypoLiize - December 23, 2017, 11:01 am scammed me aswell. nothing heard back and no refund. His proof on his threads are just from scams i doubt he does any of these methods salesman001 - December 23, 2017, 11:57 pm can we have some body run reviews on the ebooks on the selling sections cuss they are a lot of scammers there ripping people off on a daily . i guess the main idea of buying an ebook that claims to yield some amount of profit .is to make profit not to lose your capital and have nothing to show for it

Simple - none of them work

They're just there so the owner profits off selling multiple copies for $30 orso
