Thread: Just walked in on my brother watching an isis beheading

1488zef - December 24, 2017, 1:19 pm

What the fuck? I just walked in my brothers room and he was watching a, what I can only assume was an isis beheading. He was laughing with someone on his headphones about how he paused it on a frame where 'just as his head got cut'. Seriously what the fuck do I do? Do I tell our mum just a day before Christmas? Literally any help is appreciated have no idea what to do. [/color]

Dredd - December 24, 2017, 1:20 pm

I've sat on liveleak with my mates on skype it could be harmless I wouldn't be quick to assume in a situation like that snappari2 - December 24, 2017, 1:24 pm

I've personally watched something of the sort in school, and at home with my mates. Don't worry it's probably him going through the stage of finding that shit funny, some people go through it like me, don't worry about it.

RottenTomatoes - December 24, 2017, 1:25 pm

This thread has 100% less incest than I expected.

Fumbo - December 24, 2017, 1:27 pm

A lot of people just watch that for no reason and they start to find it funny. I started to watch videos on /r/watchpeopledie a few months ago and now I just find it amusing; when it's not of children.

SIM-3749878 - December 24, 2017, 1:32 pm

Wtf, let your brother watch wtf he wants.

The sooner he learns about Islam, the better.

Install a lock on your bedroom door; sleep with one eye open.

NoSuchAgency - December 24, 2017, 2:24 pm

He'll be fine, relax. Lots of kids end up watching gore videos. Usually it's just a phase. How old is he?

Options Trading - December 24, 2017, 2:27 pm

bro i watch liveleak on the daily, its whatever lust - December 24, 2017, 2:30 pm

If you seriously even considered telling your Mom and stressing the family the night before Christmas, you're overreacting. Just let him be. Lots of us probably did this kind of thing as young children.

ZerFallen - December 24, 2017, 2:35 pm

I've watched almost every ISIS torture video. It's most likely just morbid curiosity.

RottenTomatoes - December 24, 2017, 3:02 pm

I would love to watch ISIS videos if they featured more members of this forum.

Killy - December 24, 2017, 3:07 pm

reBELLYus - December 24, 2017, 3:10 pm

Gbull - December 24, 2017, 3:37 pm

He was probably looking up ways to get back at his brother for getting him in trouble that one time.

SIM-1589588 - December 24, 2017, 3:38 pm

That explains it all and you. Thank you for that confirmation. Don't get how you can laugh at that shit, that could be your family member getting tortured. How old is he?

Covalent - December 24, 2017, 7:05 pm

Vitani's Mate - December 24, 2017, 8:22 pm

Sometimes people laugh at something really bad in disbelief. I do sometimes. I think "omg is this real".

Elitas - December 25, 2017, 1:59 am

Your brother may be going down the Ted Bundy road. It starts with those kind of thoughts/videos and then moves onto bondage before he starts peeping at his neighbors getting dressed and then he goes down the road of kidnapping women, going to jail, and if his IQ is high enough, escaping jail and going on the run peeping into more windows than ever and kidnapping young women all across America until he is finally found and executed.

Stop the cycle or embrace it, your choice.

o hai there - December 25, 2017, 4:33 am

Honestly who fucking cares, it's called gross curiosity. Just because someone watches something, doesn't mean they agree with it. No need to start stupid shit with your brother. Hell I've watched a few videos of women stomping/squashing kittens, but that really doesn't mean shit.

How could we? Well for starters were not all weak cunts like you.

Windows - December 25, 2017, 12:09 pm

Not sure how people can laugh at stuff like that.. but i'm sure almost everyone has seen a gore vid, so I wouldn't worry about it OP.

Riot - December 25, 2017, 12:59 pm

You trippin, 'lots of people watch these types of videos; myself included. (I'd be lying if I said I haven't had a chuckle before) If you're that worried just be more vigilant of his actions (major changes in behavior, becoming reclusive, dropping grades/ambitions) These are better indicators of possible psychological problems.

spradebassen - December 25, 2017, 1:12 pm

id be honored to cum to an isis beheading

Armada - December 25, 2017, 3:08 pm

I dont encourage this media, but I believe its a needed thing to understand our world.

The world is a scary place, and people have many different idealogies.

Its worth seeing what can happen, but idoloziation of the concept, it is bastardzed.

assbiscuits - December 26, 2017, 1:26 am

Morbid curiosity. Completely normal.

champagnpapi - December 26, 2017, 1:41 am
